

Ramrods Slaughter Bay City Quinetet

The Ramrods, sponsored by Chetco Rod & Gun Club, won their fourth straight league game in the Crescent City circuit on Tuesday night, by overpowering the Bay City Club, 55 to 17.

High scorers for the locals were Jim Barrett with 11 points, Tony Felipe with 10. Harold Putnam with 9 and Bob Astin, 8.

The Ramrods also won two exhibition games last week by defeating Case's Sport Shops, 40 to 31 and Cave Junction, 51-33, the latter being played here last Thursday evening.

News of Death Shocks Community

SMITH RIVER—Friends and relatives were shocked here on Monday, to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Bertha Wood, victim of a heart attack Sunday at her home at Santa Rosa.

Native of Siskiyou county, she was the wife of the late Mark Wood, who died earlier in 1950. She was well known in this area and in the Brookings and Harbor area, where the Woods lived many years. She and her husband were owners of the Harbor Store which they sold to E. E. Hianscam in 1924. In 1948 they sold their property and moved to Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Wood spent several of the past summer months here and in Brookings renewing acquaintances.

Surviving are two sisters: Mrs. Clara Bailey of Fort Dick and Miss Etta Walker of Santa Rosa and a brother, Ira Walker of San Francisco. Relatives who left on Monday to attend the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. William Buckner, Mrs. Clara Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bailey.

Get-Together Christmas Day

One of the happiest get-together events was the family re-union held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison Christmas day, when their daughters and sons and families were at the parental home to enjoy a turkey dinner. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Laut Hollingsworth of Richmond and son LeRoy of Smith River; Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Woolworth and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Marland Rice and three sons of Albany, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sarina and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Morrison and daughter and Freddie Morrison all of Smith River. It had been several years since all had been together.

New Years Dance Attracts
The New Year's dance, held on Dec. 31 was one of the big social events of the year, with the hall crowded, coming from far and near to bid adieu to the old year and Welcome 1951. Good music was furnished with plenty of noise makers. Bundles of colored balloons were hung on the ceiling, and were let tdown at midnight. Supper was served in the banquet hall by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McClish.

The sum cleared will be used for improvements to the hall.

To Sponsor Supper.
Smith River Womens club is sponsoring a pot luck supper to be held at the community hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 4, at 7 o'clock. This will be a social meeting when club members entertain husbands at an evening party. Members are urged to bring their own table service.

Asdels Will Return To Aircraft Work

A note with their Christmas card to the Pilot, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Asdel, recently of Port Orford, but now of Santa Monica, Calif., will not return from their Christmas visit.

Instead Mr. Asdel has taken employment with Lockheed Aircraft, building airplanes, a work which he followed before coming to Curry county just after the last world war to start Oregon Berry Co., at Port Orford, propagators of blueberries.

Port Orford correspondence is now being handed by Hazel Cram who will also do a very good job, the Pilot feels.

Gold Beach Teams Here Friday Eve.
