By Hazel Cram

The community program at the high school gym was well attended, with entertainment provided by the school pageant, the band, and selections by the Treble Clef chorus. Santa was there with treats for the children.

With the holidays many were home to spend Christmas with their families. Service men included Keith Miller, John Hatcher, Herb Murphy, and Roy Miller. Sunny Leonard, Eugene, is home visiting her mother, Mrs. John Leonard and family. Richard Pugh and Deana Spencer are also with their parents for a few days.

Carl and LaReine Echolm and two children were guests at the Ed Maloy home.

Spending Christmas with the John Marsh's were her daughter, U. E. Richter and family of Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith are visiting friends and relatives on a vacation from Weott, Calif.

Among those going away for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nutt who spent Christmas with relatives at Drain; Mrs. Bernice Laurance and Stephen to Junction City and Portland; the George Bakers to Portland; Miss Marian Rittman to Hawley, Minn.; and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Corbin to Gold Beach.

Curry Chapter O. E. S. elected officers at its December meeting to serve for 1951: Violet Spencer, worthy matron; James Mastropolitto, worthy patron; Laura Miller associate matron; Henry Adolphson, associate patron; Althea Smith, conductress and Rose Wheling, associate conductress; Hazel McKenzie, secretary; Mrs. Grace Blagdon, treasurer; Mary Dobbema, Ada; Elna Rigik, Ruth; Eulla Mastropolitto, Esther; Grace McKenzie, Martha; Lorna Averill, Elect; Fay Price, organist; Eva Kerber, chaplain; Patricia Hinderlie, marshal; Let Bush, warden; Clarence Hines, sentinel. These officers were installed at a special meeting Dec. 22. Following the meeting a Christmas party was enjoyed with gift exchange to reveal secret pals.

The Tuesday Sewing Club met for its Christmas luncheon at Mrs. Ed Maloy's with 12 members present. Pals were revealed and names drawn for another year. Eva Kerber and Hazel Cram were guests. The tree held generous gifts for small Cara Lynn MacDonald who attends regularly with her mother.

William H. Miller, Eugene, is spending a few days at the home of his brother, G. A. Miller and family. At the Millers also is a daughter, Edna Whitney, Eugene and son Frank.

Word received from Mr. and Mrs. George D. Asdels state they will remain in California indefinitely. Mr. Asdel is employed at Lockheed Aircraft, where he feels his job is more essential to the war effort than growing blueberries.

Mrs. Ed Maloy was mentioned on KIEM last week as winner of a $5 prize in "The Thing" contest, of interest to radio listeners over the area.

In his talk for events, resolutions, inventory and remedy for the New Year, H. H. Graham reminded us: Have you confessed and put away all secret and known sins? Unless you put all these away, you cannot expect to dispose of them at the pearly gates. Is your spiritual condition asleep—Matthew 25:5 and Matthew 13:25.

As we look at the condition of the world, are we ready for whatever comes? We build houses and put doors and locks on them for protection of our possessions, but do we protect our children from the sins that abound in the world? Do you go to church and take your children with you? Inventory of the past year: Are you pleased with all you have done? Take an inventory and resolve that you will not commit those things again that will keep you out of the pearly gates.

There are two masters striving for mastery of your mind and self. You will have to decide which master you will serve, Satan or Christ.

Christ came to this world and overcame all temptations. He became the Master of this world. All sins, secret and cherished must be put away. As we look in to the New Year, we do not know what it holds for us.

Resolve this year to live a better life than the year just passed.
