B. P. A. Power Is Great "Demand"

Low voltage in this area, from power supplied by the California - Oregon Power Co., is something to "cry" about by citizens of this vicinity. This company does not deliver sufficient voltage to the local Coos-Curry Electric Co-operative, and nothing can be accomplished by asking COPCO to do "something".

Bonneville power is almost to the north Curry Co. line. The power line is almost completed between Gold Beach and Brookings—Bonneville should recognize this need, and act accordingly. Lack of power has held this county back, just long enough.

Merle Hanscam Sells Store Interest

Merle Hanscam, for four years one of the members of E. E. Hanscam & Sons, pioneer merchants, operating the store at Harbor, sold his interest to his brothers late last week, and is taking a rest for a time.

The Pilot was unable to reach Merle for a statement in time for this issue. Tuesday he was not at Rotary, and was reported to be up the Chetco river at the time. Mrs. Hanscam, however, confirmed the sale, but offered no information about their future plans.

Merle has taken an active interest in all local affairs, has been a director on the chamber of commerce for more than a year, was vice-president of the Rotary club, past-president of Chetco Rod & Gun Club.

'March of Dimes' Needs Money To Meet Polio Cases

Thousands of Oregon polio fighters will throw their active support behind the annual March of Dimes Monday in the opening phase of a two-weeks campaign for funds to carry the heaviest burden that infantile paralysis has ever imposed on the American people.

Treasuries of many of Oregon county chapters of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis have been emptied or badly depleted during a year that has brought the state an unprecedented 515 to 520 polio cases. Three hundred and twenty-five Oregonians were stricken in 1949 and carry-over cases from that year, and even earlier, have added to the drain on Oregon chapters in 1950.

The National picture was so much the same, according to Dr. E. T. Hedlund, Portland, who is serving as state March of Dimes chairman for the 13th consecutive year. Dr. Hedlund said that 1950 was the third straight year of high polio incidence in this country. More than 100,000 cases were totalled for 1948, 1949 and 1950 combined — or almost as many as the entire case load for the previous decade. March of Dimes monies needed for patient care and epidemic aid during the three years amounted to $58,000,000.

"In this state last year," Dr. Hedlund said, "one case alone cost more than $12,000. The disease is always expensive, in dollars and cents and in human suffering, and this is a most crucial point in our battle against it. Let's all punch together to kayo polio."

LOCAL NEWS

Barn plans, drawn by Roy Weideman and submitted to the Chetco Wranglers Club, were up for discussion, Tuesday evening at Arnold Morris place when the club met. Following the meeting Art Crook and Dave Crockett served a chili feed to the 32 members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Harroun have purchased a home and acreage north of Brookings from Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Head of Klamath Falls. The deal was handled through M. G. Becker, local realtor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincent were in town Wednesday on business. They now live at Portland where Ralph is photographer for The Oregonian.

Rain Tuesday night reminded people of this area that just a year ago at this time this section was suffering from freezing weather, and subsequently power outages when ice broke lines on the east side of the mountains. Liquid precipitation is stasier to handle about wires, linemen are quick to tell you.

Henry Kerr left early this week for San Francisco on a business trip.

"Penny Supper" Set For Saturday

People who have been anticipating the good eats to be enjoyed at the P.-T. A. "Penny Supper," will soon be afforded the pleasure denied last fall when power failure postponed the first scheduled date.

Saturday, January 13, at 6 p. m., at the high school the long-awaited event will take place—unless another power outage occurs, Mrs. Ross Horn, president, announces this week.

Everyone is invited to come to this pot luck affair; to enjoy a meal for a few cents and to be entertained by the local Barber-shop chorus; movies that will appeal to the young and old.

Bruins Divide Pair With Gold Beach

Arthur Guthrie, mentor of the Bruins hoop squad, breathed a lot easier, and probably had a good night's sleep last Friday, after his proteges had downed Gold Beach 51 to 36 in the first meeting of the two teams this season. Played on the local floor, the game never was in doubt, although it was continuously battled to the last whistle. The score by quarters:

Gold Beach	6	16	25	36
Brookings	11	28	34	51

The B equads of the two high school, however, put on the best battle of the evening when the score was never more than five points apart, but with Gold Beach coming out ahead 35 to 33. The score by quarters:

Gold Beach	1	15	20	35
Brookings	2	10	18	33

Rain Records Of Intense Interest

Precipitation records furnished last week by Paul Whirry, local weather observer, and published by the Pilot, caused considerable comment from the local citizens for this has been the first such publication ever attempted for this area. Those figures were not taken lightly nor were they just so many figures to the people.

Several people who have lived in the area almost as long as the period covered by the record, did not "remember" it that way — and to them many doubts were raised.

Heavy sales of the Pilot last week denoted that many copies have been mailed away to other areas.

Weather records are vital statistics to all growers in all areas of the country. This column is maintained weekly in the Pilot, in co-operation with the United States Weather Bureau, represented locally by Paul Whirry, and assisted by Mrs. Lou Loring.

Club Books Shoot Here, Next Sunday

Another shoot, this time for coffee, ham and eggs, will be the order of the day, Sunday, Jan. 14, at the club house on Benham Road, it was announced Monday.

Chetco Rod & Gun Club, the sponsors, has acquired a modern trap shoot equipment and has attracted large crowds at all the previous shoots when ham and turkeys were given as prizes to the best "eagle eyes."

Advertisement of the event is elsewhere in this issue.

Ellsworth Writes Column For Pilot

"Washington Week," a column written by Representative Harris Ellsworth, while congress is in session, appears in this issue for the first time in several months. While at Washington in the "lame duck" congress, Ellsworth evidently felt it unworthy or had little time to report all the events.

It is safe to assume that Mr. Ellsworth will keep these columns coming weekly as he has always been in the habit of doing heretofore.
