LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Langlois Home Extension unit met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lillian Berg. Among those present to share in the benefits of the lesson on "Emergency Meals" were: Marian Brooks, Olive Britton, Florence Thorhaven, Elsie Quinn, Jean Strain, Pauline Anderson, Ethelene Thompson, Arlene Thetford and the hostess, Lillian Berg. Special points on making emergency meals a pleasure instead of a bugbear were brought out by Dorothy Newton, Curry County home demonstration agent.

Mrs. A. A. Cline is a patient at the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, where she underwent surgery recently. Reports as to her condition are good.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Edwards became parents of their first child, a son, Jan. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bruchler and family returned Jan. 2, from a trip through California and Mexico. They witnessed the New Year's parade at Pasadena.

Whalen's restaurant opened on Sunday, Jan. 7, after being closed for sometime for remodeling.

Mrs. Julia Anderson left last week to spend an indefinite period visiting her son's family at Salem. She will see her new little granddaughter for the first time.

Mrs. Margaret Whalen was able to return to her home here last week after being a patient at the Mast Hospital, Myrtle Point, since Oct. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kamph made a trip to San Francisco over the holidays, returning Jan. 2. Mrs. Kamph's family held a re-union there, which was attended by all members except one sister.

The Home Demonstration service, operating through local units, is bringing the instruction of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and OSC through the home demonstration agent direct to the housewife.

This is the third year that the Langlois unit has been operating and, if it were possible to look into the home of those who attend the meetings, a countless number of benefits would be noted. There are many renovated chairs and davenports, more conveniently arranged kitchens, new footstools and slipper chairs, new methods of cooking and serving, dress forms and sewing everywhere. All members have an inner sense of benefits received.

By notifying Ethelene Thompson of her interest, any woman interested in attending any of the unit meetings, can be placed on the mailing list and she will receive a card telling place and time of meetings. Notice of the meetings are also placed in the newspapers. Langlois unit meets on the first Thursday of each month.

There are no dues; expenses of participation are negligible as a member pays only for materials used by herself. Members help each other and there is a fine spirit of co-operation.

A better cotton dress workshop is scheduled for March and it is expected that many women will participate.

OFFICE SUPPLIES

For that young man or lady who is in school, who may have endless themes, papers and reports to 'hand in', a new "Smith-Corona" typewriter could be the greatest Christmas present you could possibly give. Place a gift certificate under the Christmas tree, and watch the delight.

Office supplies, including adding machines, cash registers, typewriters, together with business forms are being made available in Curry County through Brookings-Harbor Pilot and the Typo-print, at Gold Beach.

Go to your nearest office and make known your wants. It may be surprising how easily all these may be solved, and quickly.
