

Port Orford News

By Hazel Cram

Port Orford city council met Jan. 9. Three newly-elected aldermen took oath of office: Ira Tucker, Clarence Hansen and N. B. Marsh. Attorney E. R. Shaw was engaged to assist in revising and modernizing the city charter. A Bonneville representative was present, and reported that the new street lights would be installed this week. Bids were accepted to build city sidewalks, a contract being let to Larry Rickman.

M. P. (Doc) Livermore received treatment at Leep Hospital, Bandon, for a badly cut foot, sustained while at his work with a highway crew.

Port Orford teachers and the school employees enjoyed a pot luck supper at Langlois with the teachers there last week, with entertainment afterwards by a talented group of youngsters.

The Centennial meeting at the high school was quite well-attended. Representatives from the Floras-Willow club were present, with offers to help. Donations to further the 1951 celebration were received from P-T. A., the Sunset Garden Club, and Floras-Willow club. Chairman Tucker has called a meeting of committee heads and steering committee members for Monday Jan. 29, at the high school in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Court Boice and her mother, Mrs. Bob Forty, left last Monday for Eugene, Mrs. Boice to have a medical checkup.

Making a business trip to Portland last week were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Corbin, Mrs. Erma Wagner, Mrs. Althea Smith and Mrs. Noma Thomas.

Bishop Jenkins traveled to El Paso Texas, last week to attend a meeting of the House of Bishops of the Episcopal churches.

Tuesday Sewing club met last week with Mrs. Ed Maloy, with 11 members present. The newest member is Mrs. Eva Kerber, who joined at the beginning of the year. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bea Cooley.

Several residences on the north side of Garrison Lake have been broken into the past few months. Valuables and foods were stolen, and great destruction was made to property. It is the work of juveniles, most of them under 15 years of age. Some were taken to juvenile court, Gold Beach, last week. Authorities are keeping keeping close watch, and parents are urged to keep closer vigilance of their children.

A tea, honoring Mrs. Jean Grider, recently from Delmar, Ore., was given by Mrs. Thomas Jenkins at her home, Jan. 9. Mrs. Grider, sister of Demps Gilfillan, is guest at the Gilfillan home. Fire recently destroyed all of the Grider's personal belongings when their Delmar home was burned. Members of the Ladies Church Service League of Episcopal church presented Mrs. Grider with a gift. Attending the tea were Mrs. D. Gilfillan, Mrs. Louis Marsh, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Bernal Forty, Mrs. L. Sargent, Mrs. G. E. Ebbutt, Mrs. Grider and Mrs. Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wilcox were involved in an accident on Friday evening when Mr. Wilcox was blinded by lights and collided with Nicholson's truck near Elk River road. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox suffered lacerations from broken glass, and the car was badly damaged.

Another accident on Monday morning occurred at the grade school, when the bus driver, Chet Kirtland, collided with a car driven by Mrs. Lula Todd. No one was hurt, Mrs. Todd's car was the worst damaged.

Sunset Garden Club held its first meeting of the year at the Bernie Laurence home, Jan. 12. Members have taken as project landscaping of the school yard. The porch box at the front entrance is planted and new shrubs may be seen along the front wall. Plans include a hedge to separate the playground from the home from San Diego for two lawn.

Pat Masterson, U. S. Navy, is weeks leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Masterson.

Don Spicer purchased five acres of land across Garrison Lake of Clarence Hansen, and plans to build later. The Spicer family lives in the Hamlet now.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hayes left early Sunday for a visit in the Los Angeles area. Mr. Hayes' father, who recently suffered a stroke, is reported to be in poor condition. They may be gone two or more weeks.

LOCAL NEWS

Relatives have received word of the marriage of Miss Mildred Crawford of Harbor to Clarence Keayes of Portland, at Vancouver, Wash., Jan. 2. Mrs. Keayes has live in this area all her life, while her husband worked on the highway construction job here last year. They are now making their home at Portland, but expect to go to Hood River soon.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Rice returned recently after attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Julia M. Rice, at San Jose, Jan. 15. Mrs. Rice, 95, had been in ill health for several months.

Charles Mills flew to his home at Vine Grove, Ky., Saturday after visiting his sister, Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Jr. and family for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biddle are at Oakland where they were summoned by the serious illness of their brother-in-law, who is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Carl Bolin arrived home Monday from Arlington, Calif., where she had accompanied her daughter, Betti, home after visit here with her parents over the holidays. Mrs. Bolin was stranded at Eureka Monday morning when no bus was scheduled to come north, but found a resident of this area shopping in Eureka, so returned with her.

Watch for announcement of the Dorcas Society Valentine Sale, set for February 13.

Mrs. J. S. Clendenin and Mrs. Henry Weigel went to Portland Sunday where Mrs. Clendenin is to receive medical attention this week.

Mrs. Bernice Cagley and her daughter, Jerrie Lee were here from Coos Bay for a few days last week. Mrs. Cagley reports Jerrie Lee is recovering nicely from her serious illness during the holidays, and should be able to return to school soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiling and Mrs. Reiling's mother, Mrs. Geo. Anderson, of Grants Pass, arrived Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives. They were accompanied by their son, Pvt. Gene, who is in the army engineer corps, and is on a 15-day furlough and travel time. Gene, who has been stationed near the national capital for several months, has to report to a California camp at the end of his furlough.

Mrs. Lyle Redfield has been ill and confined to her home for the last week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Habecost of McMinnville called on Homer Kessler, Tuesday on their way home from Palm Springs, Calif., where they had spent five weeks.

Second in the series of card parties being given by the Rebekah Social club, was held last Saturday evening with eleven tables in play. At the close, the high scores were held by Emma Chambers and Ted Freeman; the lows by Edna Weigel and Dave Gilmore; and the traveling pinochle prizes by Marie Hoar and George Murry; with door prize being won by Irene McPherson.

The third in the series will be held Feb. 3, at the I. O. O. F. hall at 8 p. m.

Arthur Pepin, of Tucson, Arizona, a professional musician, was a guest chorus director and commentator at the Monday evening meeting of the Barbershop group at the Rod and Gun Club building. The group enjoyed his remarks and aid immensely.

Leonard Starts An Insurance Agency

C. O. Leonard returned last week from a trip to Portland to obtain local agency for American Insurance Co., writing fire, property damage, etc., for this area, and to establish himself in the insurance circles of Oregon.

In addition to bringing this agency to this area, Mr. Leonard purchased a Hammond organ which he has moved to his apartment upstairs in the former Crissey building, which has been a magnet for many friends to visit and listen.

Bruins Won Three From Langlois Hi

Brookings Bruins, last Friday, went into a first-place tie with Langlois in Curry County hoop race, by virtue of the triple win at Langlois. The volleyball girls tipped Langlois 45 to 24; the second string won from Langlois B squad, 51 to 14, and the first string made it a perfect evening by winning 55 to 38 in the finale.

Coming games this week-end include a second game with the Ophir squad, only one to defeat Brookings this year, on Friday, and again on Saturday with the Bandon hoopsters, who have a reputed good team.

Each evening there will be two games, according to the schedule.

People of the area are reminded that Feb. 3, is date set for the annual Hard Times Dance, for benefit of the March of Dimes campaign locally. Watch for the advertising to appear

"Classified Ads"

For Sale: Six boats, 16 ft. long, 5-ft. beam. $15.00 each, all for $75. Scott's Lodge, at Gold Beach. 48ft

HEMORRHOIDS

Dr. John D. Clark, D. C., Ph. C. of the bay area is establishing his office in the Hotel Lauff and will be at Crescent City every Thursday for hemorrhoid work. Hemorrhoids can be completely obliterated without surgery, loss of time from work, and painlessly. With our years of experience, you can feel confident that your case can be successfully handled if taken by us. Don't neglect even a "simple case of piles." Consultation costs nothing and places you under no obligation. Appointment necessary.

Dr. J. D. Clark, D. C., Ph. C.

Lauff Hotel Thursday Only Crescent City Phone 1181

GOOD QUALITY MEATS AT A LOW PRICE

We are striving always to bring prices of meats to match the most exacting budget in any home!!

HENS, fresh killed, for stewing, lb.	45c
GROUND BEEF, fresh lean, lb.	69c
SLICED BACON, Swift's Oriole, lb.	59c
RIB STEAK, good economical, lb.	79c

M. & H. MARKET
IN REDFIELD'S GROCERY

INSURE TODAY— THE AMERICAN WAY!

Fire, Theft, Auto, Truck, Comprehensive, Surety, Public Liability and Property Damage, through

AMERICAN INSURANCE CO.

Established in 1846

Let Your Insurance Problems Be Mine—
C. O. Leonard Insurance Agency

Appraisals and Information—No Obligation!!

Telephones 341 or 281 Brookings, Oregon

CAFE OPENING

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18th, 1951

CHETCO CAFE

Seafoods, Steaks, Chicken Dinners Home-Made Pies

HOURS: 6:00 A. M. TO 1:00 A. M.

—Under New Management—

C. O. LEONARD L. L. LEONARD REAL ESTATE Brokers

Residence Phone: 281
Box 211 Phone 341

Notary Public—C. O. Leonard

SALESMEN:

O. S. Young Hans Nelson
Earl Docherty

Brookings, Oregon

New 3-bedroom modern home on 50x150 foot lot close in can be bought for $750 down and $50 per month on the balance. Total price $3250.

One of the few remaining desirable ocean frontage tracts consisting of 5 acres has been listed with us to sell at an exceptionally reasonable figure. would make one or several perfect home sites. See it the first sunny day. Price $10,000.

If you are looking for a home site with highway frontage, magnificent ocean view and a lovely background of trees, we have it. 6 acres in this piece. Also a place to live while you're building. All this for $7500.

5 acres with well built large partially constructed home with attic. Could be occupied comfortably now and finished later. Can be bought for the low price of $5500 on terms.

We have several completely finished and modern homes that can be bought on FHA terms.

1936 1 1/2 ton Chev. truck, $165. Inquire at the office.

One acre in town, all level. One of the better building spots, $1200.

47 acres with a home needing some repairs for $2850. Fine spring water piped to house. A small amount of timber on the place.

4 acres with highway frontage, close in, suitable for exclusive homes.

Service station for lease: Excellent opportunity for someone. Very small amount handles.

Choice business lots in excellent location. Reasonably priced, with liberal terms.

We Work With SPEED to Fill Your NEED!.....