

GOLD BEACHHOME WEDDING

The Bob Owens home on Rogue River was setting, Saturday, Jan. 27, for the wedding of Theola Mildred (Mary) Hutchings and Howard (Red) Herron, with Rev. Johnson performing the ceremony. Mary Grace and David, children of the bride, carried the rings which were used in the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Sands of Sands Studio were among guest and took pictures of the couple. A buffet supper was served to the guests by Mrs. Bob Owens and Myrtle Whirly, mother of the bride. The Herrons will continue to reside here where she is in business with her mother, owners of Myrt and Mary's Dinette, and Mr. Herron is employed by Foster-Clyde Lumber Co.

WEDDING BELLS

Lee Lafferty and Ruth Dubay were united in marriage Saturday at Medford. Rusty will continue his schooling at Ashland and for the present the bride will continue with her work at the Gold Beach hospital.

WORKERS NEEDED

The work on the new lodge hall is coming along fine. This is all volunteer labor and any able-bodied man with a lot of community spirit and the time to work on Sundays, will be welcome. A nourishing lunch is served by ladies of the various organizations at noontime.

GOLD BEACH NEWS NOTES

If you took a jaunt out Ocean View Drive to look at beautiful ocean frontage, you couldn't help "falling head-over-heels" for this lovely spot for a homestead. Large lot about 75x200. Priced at $2650 with terms.

Attractive 2-bedroom home, utility room, dbl. garage and a spare room suitable for guest room, work shop, or office. About 2½ acres of land, right on Hwy 101 with ocean view. Good investment for someone.

If you have a 2-bedroom house, and you don't want it, someone else does. List it now!

Now taking bids on good quality patch of timber, close in.

Good highway frontage is becoming scarce. I have 2 acres of it with grand ocean view. Lays nicely, all cleared, in the Harbor district. Priced right.

Good income property available on easy terms.

I have some excellent business opportunities in Curry County available to cash customers.

Other homes, ocean frontage, lots and acreage.

Gene Ackerman left last week for Los Leggis Valley to visit Mrs. Ackerman's son who has enlisted in the air force.

Jennie's Beauty Shop was burglarized sometime Thursday evening but it is reported that no articles were taken.

Mrs. George Chenoweth went to Bandon with their Bill and wife last week to visit for a few days.

We hate to report that Brookings grade basketball team beat Gold Beach boys last week. Of course we try to re-assure ourselves and blame it on the fact that one of the local stars, Stephen Ganong, wasn't playing, due to knee injury suffered earlier in the week.

A group of girls met at the home of Hazel Sydow last Thursday to form a 4-H sewing club with Mrs. Sydow as leader. Officers are: president, Sharon Jarrett; vice-president, Darleen Barnes; secretary, Fern Christians; program chairman, Marion Billings, with Vesper Bailor assisting. The girls spent the evening in hemming dishtowels. The leader served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Erickson and RayAnn have moved to their new home. A group of ladies in the neighborhood called last Friday evening to welcome the family to that vicinity.

Vesta Gauntlett is taking two months leave of absence as manager of Trehearne's Gold Beach store. In her absence, Gladys Forsyth will be in charge.

Oda Sabin, wife of R. G. Sabin, suffered a slight stroke last week. At last report she was recovering well. She certainly has the good wishes of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douthit made a business trip to Coos Bay last week.

Mrs. Elmer Caspell spent last week-end at Portland visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nulf felt Monday of last week for Eugene to take Mrs. Nulf to a hospital for medical treatment.

Mrs. Coley Hayes left Saturday for Gold Hill where she will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes.

With The ChurchesChristian Scientist

Services Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 4.

Golden Text is "The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is high; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing" (Zeph. 3:17).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "For true happiness, man must harmonize with his Principle, divine Love, the Son must be in accord with the Father, in conformity with Christ" (p. 337).
