

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

A goodly number of Langlois Home Extension units members went home from their February meeting with a firm determination to improve their home yards by better arrangement of plants and shrubs. The lesson, "Landscaping," was given by Dorothy Newton, HDA, at the home of Elsie Quinn last Thursday. Miss Newton gave a talk on design, and led a discussion on plants and shrubs with particular emphasis on native plants. Members sketched their homes and began their planning. Despite a windy day most of them visited the nearby home of a member to get and give practical suggestions. Visitors at this part of the meeting were three from the home economics class at the high school and Mrs. Fred Pilling. At the business meeting, held in the morning members voted to assess each member $1 to fulfill this unit's obligation toward Azalea House fund. A sack lunch was served at noon with the hostess serving salad, dessert, and coffee. Among those present were Mesdames Brooks, Quinn, Moore, Thorhaven, Mastropolito, Burgess, Autery, Lee and Thompson. The preliminary meeting for the Better Cotton Dress shop will be held Feb. 7 at Sixes Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller from up Rogue River visited Fri night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Button.

Langlois Brownie Scouts met Thursday afternoon under direction of Mrs. Dick Tucker. Most of the meeting was spent in making Valentines. The Brownies wish to thank Mrs. Boice for the cookies and candy she provided for them.

The Parent-Teacher group met Jan. 23, at the Langlois grade

M. G. BECKER

Real Estate Broker

Hotel Brookings North End

Phone 422

If you took a jaunt out Ocean View Drive to look at beautiful ocean frontage, you couldn't help "falling head-over-heels" for this lovely spot for a homesite. Large lot about 75x200. Priced at $2650 with terms.

Attractive 2-bedroom home, utility room, dbl. garage and a spare room suitable for guest room, work shop, or office. About 2½ acres of land, right on Hwy 101 with ocean view. Good investment for someone.

If you have a 2-bedroom house, and you don't want it, someone else does. List it now!

Now taking bids on good quality patch of timber, close in.

Good highway frontage is becoming scarce. I have 2 acres of it with grand ocean view. Lays nicely, all cleared, in the Harbor district. Priced right.

Good income property available on easy terms.

I have some excellent business opportunities in Curry County available to cash customers.

Other homes, ocean frontage, lots and acreage.

I Sell The Earth!

gym. A talk was given by Robert Thetford on affiliation with the State Parent-Teachers Association, after which the group voted 14 to 9 in favor of affiliation. Mrs. Cecil Guptill was appointed the chairman of a recommittee to hold a P.-T. A. dinner for benefit of the band project. Mrs. Joe Everest resigned her office of treasurer and Mrs. Robert Zimmerman was elected to fill the vacancy. The room prize was won by Mrs. Edgar Capp's room. The next regular meeting will be held on February 13.

The Busy Bees 4-H club held its regular meeting, Jan. 23. The group is making needle cases of felt that was given them by Mrs. Churchill. The next meeting was Feb. 6.

Born: a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Deets, Tuesday, Jan. 30, at Mast hospital, in Myrtle Point. The little girl has been named Michele.

The Sportsmen's club will meet Feb. 13, at 8 p. m. New officers will be in charge of the meeting. Everett Longanecker, Grants Pass, will show pictures put out by the oil company he is employed with in the district.

Mrs. Al Berger entered Mast hospital, Myrtle Point, Sunday, with surgery scheduled for Monday, Feb. 5.

A ned 4-H calf club was organized Sunday under leadership of H. S. Cadman, when the Cadmans gave a dinner at their home for members of the new club.

GOLD BEACH

New Business Building

Construction has been started on the new $10,000 office building of Title Guarantee and Abstract Co. here on Second Avenue, between Caughell and Gauntlett, in the block immediately south of the court house. C. D. Garoutte of Bandon is owner of the lot and building. Wold Bros. contractors and builders, of Coquille are builders. Title Guarantee is leasing the building. Occupancy is expected by middle of February. The Coquille and Gold Beach offices are branches of the Commonwealth, Inc., of Portland, issuing title insurance and continuing abstracts. S. Smith is president and Orville Gensmer, assistant secretary and manager of the local office. George Dickinson will continue his general insurance business in the present office space which has been shared with Title Co. in the building on U. S. Hwy 101, across from the Chinook Theatre.

Eastern Star Hostesses

Last Thursday evening Eastern Star members were hostesses to a group of Jobs Daughters of Bandon. Pot luck dinner was served to about 45 out-of-town guests, including the girls, their guardians and parents. The girls put on their initiatory work before the regular meeting. It is hoped that a like group can be formed here soon.

Last Rites Held

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon for John Prince who had passed away last Thursday at his home in the Jerry's Flat district. Services were held at the Community church with the Odd Fellows having charge of graveside services. He leaves his widow, Amelia; half-sisters Ludie Miller, Fannie Hauber, Josie Forty, Belle Turner, Sadie Postel and Lena Roth; and half-brother, Tom Prince.

Surprise Party

Lois Strawn and Mrs. Bill Baxter served as hostesses for a surprise birthday party, Monday evening, for Billie Wade. The party was held at the Strawn home and Billie was really surprised. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Gold Beach News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Doug DeVoe left Saturday for San Francisco on a buying trip. They will be gone about two weeks and the gift shop will be closed during their absence.

Mrs. Addie Bowman, who recently moved to Grants Pass, has returned to Gold Beach to be near her son and family.

Norma Neff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Christian, left Thursday on the first lap of a journey to Washington, D. C. She will spend a few days in San Francisco en route.

Winona Fowler, of Miles City, Mont., visited Freda Schofield, last week. While here they made the trip up the Rogue River. Mrs. Fowler was on her way to visit her sons in Gardena, Calif.

Mrs. D. M. Moore was hostess for the Bridge Club last Thursday. The get-together was held at Blue Water lodge, where refreshments were served to three tables playing.

Funeral services were held at Portland last week for Harry Nash, resident of Wedderburn. Mr. Nash had been in poor health for some time. He was formerly employed by the forest service.

The seventh and eighth grade basketball team played Ophir on Friday and came out winners.

Again the score could not be learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hosley Jr. are living in one of Wolff's Cottages. He will be remembered as the Hosleys lived here in the past.

The Fred Bullards have moved to Port Orford where Mr. Bullard is working for Abston.

Cleve LeClair wrecked his pickup at Eureka last week as he went down to get milk food. It was understood that Cleve was not seriously injured, but the truck was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCadden of Powers were week-end visitors here. A birthday dinner was served in Mrs. McCadden's honor at the Ray Keen home, with guests: Mr. and Mrs. George Christian and daughter, Norma. Jannie Keen and Dorothy Christian are daughters of Mrs. McCadden.

GOLD BEACH — Vasness of Curry County's agricultural progress during the past two decades was revealed this week by the final report to the Oregon State College Extension Service by R. M. Knox, who had served as county agent for 20 years. Knox is succeeded by Clifford C. Jenkins, who assumed his new duties the first of the month.

NORINE HARVEY

TEACHER OF

PIANO, VOICE, PIPE-ORGAN

Life Certificate

High School Credits For

Studio Bldg., Brookings

Accredited Pupils

CHETCO ROD AND GUN CLUBFIRST ROUND MATCH*Trap Shoot*FOR CURRY COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

STARTING AT 10:30 A. M., ON

Sun. Feb. 11

COMPETING CLUBS:

(Admission Free!)

LANGLOIS GUN CLUB, Langlois, OregonGOLD BEACH GUN CLUB, Gold Beach*CHETCO ROD & GUN CLUB, Brookings*COUNTRY STORE SHOOT*FOLLOWING MATCH SHOOT-OFF

BINGO — GAMES — REFRESHMENTS FOR ALL!!

RAIN OR SHINE