Sixes, C. E. Brooks, chairman	34.30
Pistol River, John Porisch, chairman	28.35
Wedderburn, Mrs. C. E. Newhouse, chair.	28.05
Denmark, Mrs. Guptill, chairman	15.73

Total for County $1,121.67

Amounts received from schools, and included in the foregoing totals: Brookings, $79.89; Gold Beach, $50.90; Port Orford, $46.05; Ophir, $44.09; Langlois, $32.00; Pistol River, $12.70; Agness-Illahe, $10.50. Total, $276.13.

Collections were made, as follows:

Cards, $456.86; Schools, $276.13; containers, $244.40; Dances (2), $144.28—Total, $1,121.67.

"While this year did not equal the past three years, the results are considered good," Mr. Porisch said in his report. "Curry county, polio-free these many years, has done better than most counties. Over $4000 now is on hand to help pay expenses for anyone who may be victim of the disease in the county."

SCHOOL NOTES

Brookings high and elementary schools closed Monday morning, for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, due to illness of students and faculty. Monday morning, as school "took up" 127 pupils and seven teachers were on the sick list. Teachers on the list were Doherty, Ginther, Morris, Steele, Mathews, Hunt and Guthrie. It is hoped that the worst of the epidemic will be over by Thursday morning.

Brookings again won Curry county tournament, and as winner will represent Curry county in the district tournament at Yoncalla Friday and Saturday of this week. Brookings is slated to play Friday at 8:30 p. m. and on Saturday at either 7:30 or 8:30, depending on outcome Friday.

Should the Bruins win the district tournament, they then would go to the state tournament at Salem.

Curry county tournament at Gold Beach, last week-end, resulted:
