

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Senior Class Presents Play

Langlois high school graduating class will present a three-act comedy, 'Feudin' in the Hills' at the high school gym on two successive evenings, Thursday, and Friday, March 15 and 16.

The play, by James C. Parker, is a highly-amusing "hill-billy" comedy revolving around the actions of two mountain families who have been feuding for years.

Robert Thetford who is directing the farce reports that the production is unique in that every member of the senior class has a part which he portrays exceptionally well.

Members of the class and play cast are: Bertie Britton, Morrene Bruchler, Beverly Mermillois, Darrell Price, Bill Storm, Donna Hofsess, and Arthur Sypher.

Mary Mermilloid and Pat Boice who are not seniors, are also in the play.

This is the first class play to be presented at Langlois in a number of years, and rehearsals indicate that the audience is due for an amusing evening when it sees "Feudin' in the Hills."

Langlois News Notes

Regular meeting of Langlois P.-T. A. will be held Tuesday, March 20.

The first day of the Better Cotton Dress Shop for Langlois Home Extension unit members was postponed from last Friday, to Friday, March 16. This meeting will be held at Mrs. Jean Strain's home.

Richard Mermilloid, of the U. S. Air Force, visited here with his father, and sisters for a few days last week. He has been stationed in New Jersey and now expects to go to England.

Mrs. Jean Strain substituted at the grade school for a few days last week for Mrs. Elna Rigik, who was ill.

Nine members of Sixes Juvenile Grange graduated into the Sixes subordinate Grange at the last regular meeting, Saturday night. Those were: Sadie Logan, Lois Gore, Greymarie DeHaven, DiDee Everest, Shirley Phillips, Barbara Phillips, Joe Edwards, Charles Clarke, and Caroline Morris. The stage was decorated with daffodils for the occasion. Guests at the Grange meeting were Wm. Howes, state Grange Overseer; and Mrs. Irvin, district Juvenile Chairman. Two new members, Mrs. Mary Lee Anderson and Mrs. Long, were initiated in the third and fourth degrees.

The Youth Dance will be held Friday, March 16 at the Grange hall. Pot luck refreshments will be served.

Langlois Girl Scouts met Mar. 7, at the Sportsmen's club with their leader, Mrs. Archie Aldropp in charge. Marilyn Neff joined the group, making 18 in the organization. The girls discussed plans for summer camping. A surprise birthday was given for Dolores Bruchler, with a special cake made by Ethelene Thompson. Kool-aid was served by Patty Mermilloid.

Monday, March 5, James Crew, high school custodian, suffered a painful back injury at work. He was taken to Leep Memorial hospital, Bandon, for X-rays, treatment and rest.

Fred E. Pilling, principal of the high school, received word last week of the serious illness of his mother in Montana and he left to be with her. Mrs. Pilling and small daughters are staying at the John Donaldson home.

The home economics class of Langlois high school was hostess at a stork shower for Mrs. Robert Thetford, Wednesday, March 7. The shower was given at the high school and was attended by many guests.

A good sized crowd braved the cold last Friday night to attend the annual Talent Night program at the high school gym. The program was sponsored by Floras-Willow Women's Club and proceeds went to benefit of the Langlois school band. Winners: Children's Division:

1. Bonnie Jensen, of Denmark with an accordion solo.

2. Deana Churchill, Llanglois with a reading.

3. Carolyn Tucker of Bandon with a tap dance.

Adult and High School division:

1. Carolyn Morris and Estelen Stevens of Port Orford with a black-face dance act.

2. Mary and Margaret Fish, of Bandon, with a vocal duet.

3. Roger Stankovich of Langlois with a violin solo.

Profesional Division:

1. Judy and Wilbur Jensen, of Denmark with a tap dance and instrumental duet.

SMITH RIVER

The annual 'Daffodil Tea and Flower show, sponsored by the Smith River Womens club, held on Friday afternoon was a grand success. Held in the club room of the Community hall, many flowers were displayed by the garden committee with Mrs. Zelna Maris as chairman. A beautiful flower garden border with many spring flowers blooming, was arranged by the committee.

Another attractive display was the shady pool and scene of the forest with fern, moss-covered rocks, arranged by Mrs. Thelma McVay. Other attractive arrangements of flowers were made by Mrs. Maudee Luick, Mrs. Alyce Bolick, Mrs. June Brogan, Mrs. Patsy Westbrook.

Lawrence Baker of Fort Dick had on display a rare cymbidium orchid which attracted the visitors. William Crissey of Brookings displayed a choice Bilbertiag with five blossoms, a plant belonging to the pineapple family.

The linen covered tea table, set in the dining room was centered with a lovely arrangement of daffodils, arranged by Mrs. Grace VanZee.

Proceeds from cut flowers, the bulb and plant sale and silver offering will be used to carry on the work of the local library.

A large crowd was present during the afternoon to view the large variety of spring flowers, with visitors present from Crescent City, Brookings and locally. Mrs. Thelma McVay was in charge of the guest book.

The smorgasbord and Swedish dinner sponsored by the Smith River P.-T. A. held Saturday at the community hall was a grand success. More than 700 tickets were sold. The long tables of food attractively arranged were set in the main hall, where people could help themselves, and tables were placed in the main hall where 200 could be seated and enjoy a meal. The hall was attractively decorated in colorful Swedish decorations. Ted Westbrook played music at the Hammond organ during the dinner hours. Many of the hostesses were dressed in Swedish costumes. Following the dinner all enjoyed square dancing, with the grade school children put on the square dances, and a square of dancers from Medford was enjoyed by all. The committee is thankful to all who helped to make it the success.

Chetco Rod & Gun Club has booked another shoot—this time a Pre-Easter Ham shoot—Sunday at the Club house on Benham Rd.

Cancels Meeting

After two postponements the March meeting of the local P.-T. A., the March meeting has been cancelled. A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Lloyd Morris, Mrs. Lynn Hampton and Mrs. John Ginther, will pick candidates for the new officers, to be elected at the April meeting.
