

Humboldt College Players Will Appear Before High School, Friday, March 30

Greater Humboldt committee of Humboldt State College is sponsoring a road show which is being shown for nine high schools in Humboldt, Del Norte and Trinity counties, and Brookings, Ore. Advance notice informed the Pilot. The group will be at the local high school for the afternoon of March 30, according to Lynn Hampton.

Object of this road show, at no expense to the high schools, is to induce seniors to enroll at Humboldt State College, which is offering many new courses.

PAT ROSCOE

Pat Roscoe will appear as Mrs. Papov, a young widow, in Anton Chekov's one-act farce, "The Boor," when it is presented at the local high school.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gross of Orick, she is graduate of Eureka High. A junior at the Humboldt College, she is working for a teaching credential, with a major in education, and a minor in English. Active in college affairs, Pat was the former chairman of the Greater Humboldt committee, was a member of the A Cappella choir and appeared as Puck in Shakespearian comedy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Jim Edwards, an actor at the college, will appear as Smirnov, in "The Boor." He is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards of Eureka, where he graduated from the schools. A junior at Humboldt, he is majoring in economics and has a minor in political science. His college drama experiences include parts in "Joan of Lorraine," "Out of the Frying Pan," and "Hilarities of 1948." He also had major roles in "Candida" and "All My Sons."

"The Boor" is a part of the Greater Humboldt Committees road show which is being presented for nine high schools.

LOCAL NEWS

About 24 members of the local Barbershop chorus and their wives went to Gold Beach Saturday to participate in the P-T. A. programme. Aside from car sickness to several, caused by the roads, the group reported an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Grace Yelton is substituting for Mrs. Mildred Byrne at the water company office this week. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Young returned from southern California Friday. He is associated with his brother, Charles, in Young's 5c and 10c store.

Mrs. Dewey Akers and son, Hugh, came home early this week from a visit at Weiser, Idaho, Nyssa, Oregon and Boise, after ten days spent at a family reunion. A group picture was taken last week. The bus strike delayed their return several days. Send the Pilot to friends!
