

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Mrs. Lloyd Kreutzer was the guest of honor at a no-hostess stork shower held at the home of Mrs. Archie Adropp Thursday. Games were played and winners of prizes were Mesdames Jean Strain, Lois Smith, Louise Sabin, Margaret Hofess, and Betty Kreutzer. Those present besides the guest of honor were Mesdames Louise Sabin, Val Whalen, Lotl Sypher, Betty Kreutzer, Dorothy Guerin, Josephine Storm, Marjorie Strain, Dorothy Doane, Alice Hofess, Esther Phillips, Jean Strain, Ruth Cope, Lois Smith, Margaret Hofess, Pat Donaldson, Winefred Adropp, Mary Kerber, Martha Strain, Barbara Holycross and Thelma Kane. Sending gifts but unable to attend were the Strain family, and Mesdames Elma Storm, Mimi Adropp, Esther Storm, Eva Apling, Pauline Anderson, and LaRue Henry.

Northern Curry Livestock club met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Wagner for its regular meeting. Eleven members answered roll call. H. S. Cadman, leader, gave members material on the judging of stock. They are to learn this and report on it the next meeting. Refreshments were served after the usual club business was attended to. The next meeting will be held at Don McKenzie's on May 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hargand of McMinnville visited the Robert Thetford family over the past week-end. Mr. Hargand is a student at Linfield College.

Langlois Girl Scouts met last Thursday at the Sportsmen's club building. Nine were present besides the leaders, Mrs. Archie Adropp and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher. The members took a short hike and spent the remainder of the time cleaning up the grounds of the club. Cake and kool aid were served by Dolores Bruchler and Donna Longanecker.

A United Nations flag was presented to the grade school by Mrs. C. H. Brooks on behalf of the extension unit, April 13. The material for the flag was purchased and made up by the members of the unit. A patriotic program was held, during which the flag was presented, Mrs. Donna Churchill gave a brief talk on the flag, and the students sang patriotic songs.

Langlois home extension unit met at the Jean Strain home last Thursday afternoon. During the business meeting plans for the Homemaker's festival, to be held at Gold Beach, were discussed. The floral arrangement for the local unit will be made by Evelyn Boice and Jean Strain. Marion Brooks and Frances Autery will arrange an exhibit on landscaping. The members who made better cotton dress in the work shop will model them at the festival. Tickets for the luncheon at the festival are on sale at Dirty's. Election of officers for next year was held with these results: Marion Brooks, chairman; Dorothy Lee, vice-chairman; Lorraine Zimmerman, secretary-treasurer. In the program following the business meeting an essay was read by Elsie Quinn, "My Day" which was written by a Norwegian member of A. C. W. W. Dorothy Newton, HDA, led the talk on "Clothes Closets." Members present were: Mesdames Elsie Quinn, Etheleen Thompson, Eulla Mastropolitto, Lorane Zimmerman, Marion Brooks, Evelyn Boice, Lorothy Lee, Nana Moore, and Ada Campbell. Visitors were Mrs. Denisar, Ruby Sypher, and Katie Adolphson.

The next meeting of the unit will be May 5 at Eulla Mastropolitto's home. New officers will be installed and Dorothy Newton will lead the discussion on "Remodeling at Low Cost."

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Thetford who became parents of their second child, April 11, Tuesday. The little lad weighed eight pounds. He has been named Richard Mark.

SMITH RIVER

Smith River Womens club held its regular meeting Friday afternoon at the reception room of the community hall. Eleanor Layman presided at the business meeting, opened with flag salute led by Mrs. May Crook, and followed by collect read by Mrs. Ruth Knudson. The secretary and treasurer's report was heard. All committee chairmen reported: library, Mrs. Mildred Owen; the baby clinic by Mrs. Ethel Goodlin; Sunshine Committee by Mrs. Henrietta Woodruff; conservation by Maude Luick, who told of a meeting Wednesday at the supervisor's rooms at Memorial hall. Mrs. Luick was appointed chairman of the nominating committee.

Program chairman of arts, Mrs. Mary Ostrom, introduced Herbert Goldberg, school supervisor of music and art for Del Norte county schools, who showed a movie "Making a Mural" by T. B. Benton, which took the artist eight months to complete.

Tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ethel Goodlin, chairman, assisted by May Crook, and Grace VanZee who served cookies coffee and tea from lace-covered table centered with pink flowering peach arrangement made by Eleanor Layman. Tall green candles in crystal holders completed the table decorations. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Jessie Lessard and Mrs. Ruth Knudson. The mantel was attractive with an arrangement of flowering peach with Nile green drape as background. The May meeting will be in charge of Maude Luick, conservation chairman.

Smith River P.-T. A. plans a field day at the local school yard April 22, when members will improve the grounds. They expect to grade and level up the ball ground and gravel the driveway. Palmer Westbrook is in charge to be assisted by Principal John Ostrom. Two graders will be needed and men to work on the grounds. The new flag pole will be set up. The ladies will serve a pot luck dinner to all who will assist that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrow Nelson were hosts for a dinner party at their home Saturday evening, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Alf Goodlin who were celebrating their 42nd wedding anniversary. It was also the birthday of Mrs. Nelson. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pressler of Crescent City, Opal Nelson, Dorothy Rowley and Ray Nelson.

Rev. Wm. Owen of Santa Rosa, superintendent of Redwood Empire district of Methodist church, visited churches in Del Norte county the past week. A joint meeting was held Wednesday evening with Smith River and Gushchu churches. A pot luck supper was served at seven at the local church, followed by the official board meeting of the fourth quarterly conference.

Business and Profesional Women of Del Norte county held its April meeting at the Lake Earl Grange hall Monday. Tables were set in the main hall with white linen covers attractively decorated with spring flowers. Covers were laid for 57 members and guests with a 7:30 dinner served by ladies of Lake Earl Grange.

Miss Dorothy Rowley of the Harbor area was week-end guest of her chum, Miss Opal Nelson, to renew acquaintances here.
