OPHIR NOTES

By Marian Miller

Miss Roseanne Brooks of Portland has been visiting here the past week. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shepherd, and several years ago, she attended high school here.

Lee "Pinky" Nowlin and John "Corky" Brewer of the navy visited their homes here on a 10-day leave. They left last Friday for San Diego, where they will be placed on a navy transport ship.

There were two old time charivaries here last week. The first was for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens. Thursday, Mrs. Stevens is the former Lucille Shannon. The second was at the Dale Moore home for Mr. and Mrs. John "Corky" Brewer, Wednesday—who were married on April 14. Mrs. Brewer is the former Joan Steien, 1951 Ophir graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Miller visited Coos Bay last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Voelker were called to Vancouver, Wn., early last week by the death of Mrs. Voelker's father.

Mrs. Burl Burns recently returned home after spending several weeks visiting in different parts of Washington.

Mrs. John Brewer, Joan Steien, left Sunday for Ellsworth Wis., where she will be visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steien for several weeks. While there she expects to see her twin brother, Jack, who recently completed boot training at Great Lakes naval station. Jack is getting a 14-day leave, and is a former Ophirite as he went to school about two years ago, before going back to Wisconsin to live a year ago.

A stork shower was held last Saturday for Mrs. Lee Pollock, at James Mateer's new Community hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Ray Moore and Mrs. Bessie Dishner.

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 29.

Golden Text is "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness and honor" (Proverbs 21:16-21).

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" (Ps. 118:17), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the illusion of death, mortals wake up to the knowledge of two facts: (1) that they are not dead; (2) that they have but passed the portals of a new belief" (page 251).
