P.-T. A. Convention
Attracted 500 To Seaside Last Week

Attracted to Seaside last week for the 1951 convention of Oregon Parent-Teacher Association were more than 500 people who put in a busy three days at discussion of problems facing the present-day schools. Mrs. Dewey Akers and Mrs. Lloyd Morris report. "There certainly was not a dull moment any time."

With Mrs. Morris as head of the Music committee, the 1951 appearance of "Mothersingers" made a big hit at the convention. With 103 voices from nearly as many local groups, and with but one hour of practice, a remarkable performance was produced. Throughout the year all units had practiced the same songs—at the convention, the group did a professional job.

Mrs. Akers, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Bollinger were the only P.-T. A. members from Curry county present. Mrs. Akers was the only unit delegate since Mrs. Morris is a member of the state official family.

Raymond Young
Featured In "Sun"

Haiti Sun, published at Port Au Prince, France, carried in a "Personality Column," quite a story about Raymond D. Young, (son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. 'Oz' Young of Brookings) telling of his work in art at the College of Centre d'Art, at Port Au Prince.

Born at Los Angeles in 1918, he served in World War 2, and after discharge, completed four years at UCLA in three, going to France to continue his work in art. Mr. and Mrs. Young, his parents, proudly display this issue of the French newspaper.

Winchuck Club Showers Fire Victim

Winchuck Womens Club met at the home of Mrs. Pearl Henry for pot luck luncheon and miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Waterman whose home had burned to the ground a few weeks ago. Mrs. Waterman received many useful gifts from the club members. Present were Doris Bolen, Gertrude Scholl, Bessie Randall, Maxine Duffy, Pearl Henry, Cora Lockwood, Willamena Donnelly, Clara Bowlin, Clara May Bowlin, Charm Hatley, Beulah Keiser, Stella Nikrent and Mrs. Waterman. The next meeting will be held at the Bowlin home.

Hill Must Go To Further Progress

Even hills must give way in the path of progress.

"Tom Moore's Hill," landmark of no small dimensions, at the west fringe of town, is being "dismantled" for the earth it contains, and to be a site for a probable new business for the area.

Parker-Schram "dirt-movers, those devastating machines to earth contours, are eating into the top, moving the earth to a number of sites for final resting places.

Removal of this hill, along with scores of other changes being wrought at the moment alarm many people what is going to happen to the once-quiet and peaceful village "by the sea."

Seaview Dairy Is Kraft Distributor

While many details still remain to be completed, Seaview Dairy was given a verbal agreement to become Kraft distributors for this section of Oregon, and probably part of California.

Carl Brewer and Rod Hermann, new owners of the local institution, in the past have been employed by the Kraft Company.

The Pilot was unable to learn, since all details have not been agreed upon, just the extent of the line to be handled through the local plant.

P.-T. A. Meeting Set For Tonight

Installation of officers, report of the state convention are a couple of things on the agenda for the May P.-T. A. meeting to be held at the high school tonight, the last meeting until next fall. No P.-T. A. officers could be reached before press time to obtain a complete program.

Free Movies, Tues.

Sponsored by Chetco Wranglers Saddle Club, free movies will be shown at the high school gym, next Tuesday at 8 p. m. These pictures are from the library of the Standard Oil Co., which have been so popular in previous exhibits here.

Realty Transfers

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Kindel have sold their acreage on Arnold Line to Maynard and Milo Mathews, builders from Eugene. The Mathews Bros. plan the construction of a number of new home as soon as they can subdivide their newly-acquired tract.

Earl Brewer, one of the new owners of the Seaview Dairy, has purchased the Dennis L. Hamann home on Pacific avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Marker of Smith River have sold their ocean frontage off Freeman Lane south of Harbor to Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Biddle, owner of the "4 Biddles Auto Court."

Gunnar and Elmer Hedberg of Fortuna, Calif., have purchased a home and acreage from Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Clark. This property is located almost directly across the highway from Harris State Park.

These transactions were handled through the Pete Lesmeister agency.

Pilot Classified advertisements reach more than 600 readers each week—that is complete coverage for your message.

Donations are coming in at a steady rate toward payment of the new ambulance purchased for the community, to replace the old one which has outlived its usefulness.

Sponsored by the Brookings Rotary club, the new International panel delivery is being brought to the area soon, then to be remodeled to fit the needs for an ambulance by Davis Truck and Tractor, from whom the equipment, and who will do the remodeling job.

Pilot class das pay—try them.
