Newlyweds Hurt On Wedding Trip

Humboldt Times

The main altar of St. Bernard Church, Eureka, was decorated with calla lilies and white stock, with lilies and white broom on the side altars for the wedding of Miss Rosie Potocnick and Alexander Fredioni, Sunday afternoon, April 15.

The bride's brother, Milton Potocnick, Harbor, where the bride formerly lived, gave her in marriage, and the officiating priest was rev. John Farrell.

The bride wore a dress of white satin, French lace and nylon net, the bodice and peplum made of lace, the net skirt, draped in full folds, with cathedral train. She wore a fingertip veil of French illusion, trimmed in pearl and rhinestones, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, carnations and bovardia.

The bride's attendants were all gowned alike, in nylon net of different hues. They were: her sister, Mrs. Luella Conner of Harbor, in blue; Elizabeth Cloney in lavender, Loraine Lund in yellow, Marian Harrison in green, all of Eureka, and Joan McDonald of Brookings, in pink. They carried Colonial bouquets and wore picture hats to match their gowns.

The flower girl, Carol Jean Lear, wore a frock of white organdy and a picture hat trimmed in forget-me-nots. Edward Brummert was the ring bearer.

William Lear was the groom's best man and ushers were Richard Choitelli, Henry Tervo, Milton Loodahl and Robert Volpi. Miss Beverly Brown of Eureka was vocalist.

The reception was held in the Louisiana room at the Eureka Inn, where the groom's sister, Mrs. Rosena Brummert, assisted. The newly-weds left for a trip to Nevada and points east, the bride wearing a white suit with lavender accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride, employed in Eureka by the telephone company, is a graduate of Brookings high. Her father, Matt Potocnick, lives at Harbor, but did not attend the wedding due to ill health. The groom is a graduate of Eureka High and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Pietro Frediana. He is employed in Eureka by the A. T. Distributing Co.

While traveling near Lovelock, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Fredioni were in an accident, their car completely wrecked and both injured and treated at Lovelock hospital. They returned to Eureka the latter part of April and are making their home at 1406 Fifth Street.
