

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Nancy Moore

Baccalaureate services for the Langlois graduating class were held Sunday at the Community church. Darrell Hunt of Eugene gave the sermon. Seniors honored at the services were Donna Hofess, Bertie Britton, Pauline Anderson, Darrell Price, Morene Bruchler, Arthur Sypher, and Bill Storm. Beverly McKenzie was ill and couldn't attend.

Langlois Girl Scouts met Wednesday at Mrs. Mary Kerber's home. Their leader, Mrs. Archie Aidropp, was in charge. The girls made a model of a girl scout camp which they will show at achievement day. Pop and cake were served by Arlene Kerber.

V. C. Wenstrom and Arthur Hitchcock of Hillsboro visited at the Frank Moore's Friday evening. Mr. Wenstrom is Mrs. brother.

The monthly youth dance was held Friday night at Sixes Grange hall. Pot luck refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Marlot and young daughter of Beaverton are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Everest.

O. L. Moore entrained Rev. and Mrs. Darrell Hunt Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Darrell Hunt of Eugene had charge of the services at the Community church Sunday. This will be Rev. Hunt's last Sunday here as he is leaving to work at Fort Rock this summer.

Mrs. F. A. Tomlinson, guest of honor at a stork shower, May 12, given by Mrs. Lula Cope and Mrs. E. S. Sweet, failed to arrive at the party. She had a more important engagement at Mast hospital, Myrtle Point where her first child, a daughter, was born. The little girl has been named Patricia Linn.

Mother of Mrs. Tomlinson, Mrs. L. E. Kreutzer, opened the gifts for her. After opening of gifts refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. H. Brooks and Mrs. Dean Collins returned the middle of last week from Tulelake, Calif., where they visited Mrs. Brooks' son and family, the Don Brooks.

"Aunt Cathie's Cat", mystery comedy in three acts, was ably presented by Langlois student-body Thursday and Friday nights at the high school gym. The mystery centered around two very odd characters who appeared at intervals in an old house recently purchased by two old maid aunts and their two nieces. As it turned out they were merely a couple of the former owners's servants who were looking for some money that belonged to them.

Members of the cast were Hal Strain, Mary Donaldson, Venedia Peterson, Barbara Phillips, Genda Holycross, Clyde Quigley, Pat Boice, Charlene Turner, Gary Bruchler, Cline Caughell, Dick Everest, Iris Robbins and Chas. Clarke. The cat in the play was portrayed by Mugzie Cadman. Directors were Robert L. Thetford and Dick Everest.

GOLD BEACH

Norman Boyd spent last week end here from Fort Lewis where he will be stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turner are parents of twin girls born May 16, at Gold Beach hospital. The little girls weighed 5 lbs, 11 oz. and 6 lbs. 4 oz., and were named Karie Lee and Terrie Ellen. The Turners have a son, Steve.

Mrs. Sosey drove her husband to Crescent City last Tuesday where he took the plane for Sacramento to take treatments. Mrs. Paul Connett accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shields left Tuesday for North Bend to take a plane for Portland and from there to Detroit where they will pick up a new car. They plan driving home by way of Texas and will be gone about six weeks.

Mrs. Muriel Johnston left on Tuesday evening for Myrtle Point where her mother, Mrs. Jack Bevin is in the hospital.

4-H Cooking 3 Club met at the Robert Bailor home last week with their leader, Ethel Andriff in charge.

The seventh and eighth grade made the up-river trip Thursday of last week and took their picnic lunch along. Helping Mrs. Sydow, teacher, were Mrs. John Wolff, Mrs. Albert Allard and Mr. Jack Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey made a business trip to Portland last week.

Mrs. Paul Douthitt, Mrs. Ralph Nilsson and Mrs. Vernon Jarrett drove to Crescent City, Monday.

Mrs. Ed Segar of Corvallis was here visiting relatives and attending to business last week.

Omer Miller of Arcata and Bob Miller went hunting up Pistol River last Saturday and came home with two bear they had killed on the Pickle ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Linton Tice of Portland visited over the weekend with Mrs. Tice's sister, Marj Wallace.

Bill Gauntlett returned to Gold Beach Thursday. He reported his mother is recovering nicely from her operation and will return to the west coast as soon as possible.

In The Mail-box:

Editor, Pilot: I want to thank the Brimm Bros. and Warren T. Smith for the relations I have had with them while logging on my place and other places on the Cape Ferrello district. They have built us a wonderful road, one of the best in the county, one that will last for years.

I think all the Cape Ferrello people owe them a vote of gratitude and thanks for these improvements add to the value of our community. My dealings with these people have been just tops. R. E. Simmons.

Coquille will play Brookings at the local field Sunday at 2:00 P. M. in the first season game of the Southwestern Oregon League, in which Brookings Pelicans were awarded a berth late last week.

While Pete Lesmeister, business manager, has not completed his roster, he told the Pilot he was able to field a potent team for Sunday's game, with addition of several Crescent City players who will not be playing in any league this year, since dissolution of the Southern Oregon League.

See elsewhere in this issue for more baseball information, as released by Pete Lesmeister.
