Elder C. E. Wimer of the publishing department of the Oregon conference, spoke last Saturday. His subject: "Share Your Faith." Christ was talking to his disciples when he told them "Ye shall be witnesses—unto the uttermost part of the world." The time is not too far distant when Jesus will be seen coming in the clouds of heaven. That will be the end of the world. Are you ready?

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, May 27.
The Golden Text is "In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire to our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee" Isa. 26:8.

Among citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "My soul shall make her boast in the Lord" (Ps. 34:2), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The recipe for beauty is to have less illusion and more Soul, to retreat from the belief of pain or pleasure in the body into the unchanging calm and glorious freedom of spiritual harmony" (page 247).

Pelicans Dumped 12-8, Sunday, In Practice Game

CRESCENT CITY—Merchants defeated Brookings by a 12 to 8 score in a free-hitting and somewhat loosely-played baseball game at the local field, Sunday.

The Pelicans started out like winners in the top of the first when 11 batters went to the plate and scored five runs to drive starting pitcher "Tex" Gatlin from the mound. Don Clausen then took over the pitching chores for the Merchants and issued a base on balls to Ken Kimura for the latter's second walk in that frame. Clausen then struck out Bill McLean with the bases still loaded to end the inning.

Don was tough the rest of the way, allowing only five scattered hits. Kimura tagged him for a long home run in the fourth with no one aboard. McLean became the second run that inning when he got a "life" on an error, advanced on Matson's single, and scored when Jack Barger was safe on Van Lent's error at first. The final Pelican run came in the sixth when Kimura got his third walk of the game and scored on Bill McLean's double down right field foul line.

Keith Johnson, infielder and relief pitcher for the SOCE team at Ashland this spring, pitched the entire game for the Pelicans and despite allowing 17 hits, a lot of which were of the 'blooper' variety, deserved a better fate. The Merchants scored three in the third, two in the fourth, five in the fifth, only two of which were earned, and three in the sixth, none of which, the earned variety.

Ken Kimura with two hits in addition to his three walks and Whitey Matson with three for five, lead the Pelicans at the plate.

The Pelicans, after two practice games this spring, take on the Coquille Loggers in Southwestern Oregon League opener at Brookings next Sunday. The Loggers, champions in their league last season, should again be one of the top teams. The Pelicans will also present a real strengthened line-up and the fans in Brookings should be in for a baseball treat Sunday. The short score:

Brookings ...500 201 000— 8 12 6
Crescent ...003 243 00x—12 17 2
Batteries: Johnson and Mello; Gatlin, Clausen (1) and McComb.
