

SMITH RIVER

To Observe Memorial Day Services will be held at the Community hall at 10 a. m., May 30 in observance of Memorial day, by Smith River Post, No. 712, American Legion and Auxiliary. Following the program at the hall, the members, Boy Scouts Girls Scouts, Cub Scouts and the pupils of the local school will form a parade to march to the cemetery where graveside services will be held and then to the Indian cemetery, completing the morning with seaside services at Kamph Memorial park. All are invited to come.

Childrens Day Services Set
The local Methodist church and Sunday school will observe Childrens day, Sunday. The program will be presented by the Sunday School at the usual hour, 10-11. Worship service will be from 11 to 12, carrying out the theme.

Joint Services Planned
Joint observance of Memorial Day by the John McElroy Post No. 1281, VFW and Del Norte Post, 175, American Legion and auxiliaries is set for May 30. The Elks lodge, Shrine drum corps, Boy and Girl Scouts and other community and civic clubs are requested to participate. Veterans organizations program chairmen are Wayne Aho and John Green for the VFW and George Berry Jr. and Goroan Weller for the Legion. The program:

10 a. m. Parade forms at Lauff hotel on Beach drive; 10:30 at Memorial hall for observance; participation of Del Norte high band; Reading of Gen. Logan's Memorial Day Address by Wayne

Aho; address of the day by Geo. Berry Jr.; Invocation by Rev. Theuimler; gravesides services by Legion and seaside services by the VFW.

Other Smith River Notes
Mrs. Pearl Bosch, local postmaster, accompanied by Mrs. Marie Chzffey, postmaster of Klamath left Saturday for Del Mar, Calif., where they will attend the state postmasters convention, May 22 to 24. Assisting at the local posoffice during absence of Mrs. Bousc are Mrs. Mildred Spooner and Mrs. Pressley.

Charles Spooner is recovering satisfactorily from an accident recently suffered while unloading lumber from a truck, when the lumber slipped and fell on him. He received severe bruises to his legs and side. He gets about on crutches.

Miss Flossie Bales left first of the week for Lampasas, Tex., where she will spend several weeks, visiting her two brothers and families. She will also attend graduation exercises of a niece.

The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion to represent a park, by friends of the couple. Further details could not be learned in time for press.

A packed house listened to Rev. Father Don DeDnman, Bacca-laureate speaker, Sunday evening at Baptist Community church, as he charged the graduates to be Christian-like in their conduct in all future acts. He pointed out the great men of the world, always pointing to their Christianity as the driving force behind their power.

The program was opened by a prayer by Rev. John Mumbower, the Mothersingers sang "Therubic Hymn," with Mrs. Patterson at the piano and directed by Mrs. Lloyd Morris.

LOCAL NEWS

Donald, son of Floyd Young, of Young's 5 & 10, returned to Fort Lewis after a 10-day furlough here with his parents.

Mrs. Harold Young and children are in Camas, Wash., visiting her sister, Mrs. Dodds, and family.

While fishing on the Chetco Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young were astonished to see jackets, fishing poles and gear floating by their boat and immediately went to shore where they enlisted aid of other men of the family and set out upstream to assist someone who had evidently upset. They soon came upon Lloyd Simpson and his cousin, Eugene, just swimming to shore. People are reminded that the Chetco, seemingly harmless, is really not to be trusted—too far.

Cliff Beem, owner of Modern Refrigeration, is building an extension to his shop, a 12x16 room which the Beems expect to use for a second-hand exchange as soon as completed.

Girl Scout leaders and committee women met for a pot luck dinner at home of Mrs. Dewey Akers Friday evening. Mrs. Wm. Owen, Smith River, was a guest. The group attended the concert at the high school after the meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Moore will leave Saturday to visit their daughter, Eugenia, at Norfolk, Virginia.

The Barbershop Quartet, representing Brookings chapter of SFEBSQSA, decided to drive to Portland while practicing Friday night. The group had originally planned to fly to the Portland parade on Saturday. Micky Gould, Stan Patterson, Don Vaughan, and Ray Olson had the time of their lives, they told friends. After driving Friday night, singing most of the day and night, Saturday, crashed the Arts and Crafts Ball in the same building and entertained an appreciative audience with several of their numbers.

Elder Biggs Lloyd of Portland will speak at the Adventist services this Saturday at the Grange Hall at 11 a. m.

Celebrated Golden Wedding, May 20

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham were honored at a golden wedding anniversary open-house at Chetco Grange, Sunday, at 8 p. m. when about 100 friends attended and enjoyed the program.
