LOCAL NEWS

Two former local residents, Walter and Glenn Garvin, of Smith River, are among those graduating from Del Norte High this year. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. DoDyle Garvin. There are about 75 in the class.

Lawrence Myers drove over from Madras, Ore., recently, to take Mrs. Myers and their two children to their new home. They had been living with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lucas until school was out. Mr. Myers has been in Madras the last few months where he has established a tire-recapping shop.

Donald Patrick, George Frank and Henry Buck were stopped by the weighmaster May 18 and were arrested and brought before Justice A. E. Sandbo's court for overloading and having no permits. Found guilty they were sent to jail. When there were no blankets at the jail, the prisoners were transferred to the hotel at God Beach where their employers—Stevadore Co.—came from California to pay their fines and the men were released.

Mrs. Curt Waldien returned home from Southern California where she spent several weeks visiting relatives and becoming acquainted with another new grandchild.

E. E. Hanscam Jr. flew to Eugene last week to bring his wife and new son home. Junior recently received his pilot's license after taking instruction at the Crescent City airport.

Mrs. Leo Lucas reports that her father, Gustaf Fresk, of Arcata, is better and thanks to his kind neighbors, is being cared for also.

W. W. Smith and R. G. Sabin took in some fishing on the McKenzie river over the week-end, and report good luck.

Marlene and Eddie Still are visiting friends at Gold Beach since school is out.

Sharon Center has returned from Eureka where she visited for a few days after school was out for vacation.

Mrs. Ralph Gidding and young daughter have moved to Crescent City to make their home.

Mrs. J. I. Welch came over from Grants Pass and has been caring for Terry and Timmy Hanscam while their mother, Mrs. Vernon Hanscam was in the hospital with their little sister. Mrs. Welch is Mrs. Hanscam's mother.

Among more than 200 graduates receiving their diplomas from Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls last week-end was William R. Barton of this place, who is son of Mrs. Floyd Swearingen, and grandson of Mrs. Goldie Smith, who completed his two-year course last November, and has been employed in this area since. He is married to the former Frances Reekman of Harbor and they have two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers enjoyed a week-end visit from his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Sander and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McKeen, of Portland.

Miss Ruth Newton of Portland arrived last week-end for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Newton. Friends of hers, Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Skell, of Portland, arrived the first of the week for several days visit. Dr. Skell is professor of chemistry at University of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Berger Dahlstrom and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Strid returned to Harbor from a 10-day visit to their former home, Klamath Falls, where they attended a family re-union.

Mrs. Kathryn Reekman left Wednesday for Portland to attend the Rose Festival and the State Grange session. She will be gone for ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nickodeus, of Klamath Falls were in this area briefly the first of the week. They formerly lived at the place now owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mato.

Ed Ingram, local photographer, returned early this week to Brookings from a brief trip to Berkeley where he visited his family and to drive his car back. After a brief visit to Texas, his family will come here to live.

Women of the Community club are giving progressive card parties, lunch- and dinners, assessing a small fee which goes to the library fund. Mrs. Tony Olsen and Mrs. E. E. Rapraeger gave lunches this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jacobs accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Fisher, left for Glendale and southern California points Tuesday. They will attend graduation exercises of a niece as registered nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Redfield and his sister, Betty, have returned to Brookings from Klamath Falls to assist at the Redfield Market.

Richard Brown has gone to Redmond to assist his brother with "cat" work.

The "Connsonata" electric organ was demonstrated by Mr. and Mrs. Almus Pruitt of Medford at the Young's Hotel, Tuesday. Mrs. Ross Putnam, Mrs.

Alice Beem and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Leonard and others were impressed by the instrument.

Because Mrs. Alice Beem is interested in young people and their welfare, she will bring employers and employees together in charge. Several people needing assistance have called her, asking the names of people who want work. Many of these jobs were suitable for young people and they would have had the jobs had they been registered with Mrs. Beem at Modern Refrigeration, south on Wharf St.
