LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson left Tuesday for Portland where they met Mr. Gustafson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gustafson of Vestervik, Sweden, who are coming to this country for a visit. They will remain here until after the Fourth of July, after which the group will travel over part of the western states to show the visitors this part of the country.

Members of Topaz Rebekah lodge enjoyed a social hour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Olsen following their last meeting. All were enthusiastic over the new home, and presented the Olsens with a house-warming gift.

Mrs. Irene Payne is visiting her daughter and family at Cupertino, Calif., for a few weeks. Jack Gilmore of Santa Monica is spending a few weeks at his place on the Winchuck.

Mrs. Earl Simpson was taken to Portland last week where she underwent a minor operation. She expects to be able to come home this week.

Mrs. Barbara McNeill was the honored guest at a stork shower given for her by Mrs. Luella Fitzhugh and Marie Hempel at the Fitzhugh home last Saturday afternoon. A large group of friends gathered for the afternoon of games and visiting. The honored guest received many nice gifts.

Miss Nancy Stone is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Guy Rice this week, after finishing her junior year at Stanford University. She will go to Grants Pass this week-end where she will be employed for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush and grandson, Joe, have arrived from Parker, Arizona, to spend the summer at the riverside home on the Chetco.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Payne drove to Ashland Saturday where Mrs. Payne is attending the two weeks workshop at Southern Oregon College of Education. Mr. Payne returned home Monday.

Mrs. Kathryn Reekman returned home Saturday after visiting at Portland for ten days. During the Rose Festival she was guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Karm, former residents, after which she attended the State Grange session at the Russellville school. One of the interesting highlights of the Rose parade to her, was watching Ralph Vincent, former local resident, busily taking pictures of floats and participants in the same block she was a spectator.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirk of The Dalles are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Matot and family. Mr. Kirk, as a young man in 1893, came through here on his way south, looking for work. He was amazed at the progress made in late years.

Framework at the Brookings Plywood Corporation plant is rising at amazing speed these days. Pictures of progress will be printed in these columns as soon as available. Carl Mason told the Pilot Tuesday that he figured the company was now at least two weeks ahead of the schedule. Turn those extra items into cash by Pilot Classified ads.
