The garden club of Gold Beach and Wedderburn met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Henderson. Mrs. B. E. Kerns, Mrs. Charles Grayshel and Mrs. Erskine Miller attended. Mrs. Grayshel was guest speaker, her subject: "Flower Arrangements" which she demonstrated in an artistic manner.

Mrs. Henderson's attractive home is on the Wedderburn side of Rogue River some distance from Rogue Forest. Her garden has the old world charm of one long established. Trees overhang a little stream which meanders through the garden, fringed with ferns, crossed by a stone bridge.

In the rose garden, roses and peonies were wide awake. The huge blooms hung on slender stems.

Mrs. B. E. Kerns and Mrs. Eugene Ackley returned Saturday from the 23rd annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, held June 13-15 at Hood River. Two very full days packed with excellent programs and instruction left our local women enthusiastic. Full report will be made at Azalea

Garden Club, Thursday, June 21, at a pot luck luncheon at Azalea State park, shortly before one o'clock. Bring a pot luck dish and your own table service.

Governor Douglas McKay issued the following proclamation regarding the Oregon Historical Caravan which is being sponsored as a public service by the United States National Bank in commemoration of its 50th anniversary. The caravan, which contains many priceless exhibits, is touring the state and will visit more than 100 communities during the year.

STATE OF OREGON EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT SALEM, OREGON

PROCLAMATION

THE OREGON HISTORICAL CARAVAN is a worthy public service which represents a constructive manifestation of the desire of private enterprise to bring the history of our state to its people. The Caravan vividly portrays the vision and pioneering spirit of Oregon's early settlers. Its many objects of incalculable value should be regarded as the ingredients that have gone into the making of a great state. Over and beyond that, they typify the steps that have been taken in the building of every part of America since the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers.

Here is evidence of the sacrifices, trials and triumphs experienced by our people as they toiled to wrest homes and farms and industries and cities from the promising but stubborn wilderness. This saga of the development of Oregon is great in itself but greater still in its reflection of the march across a continent by unstoppable legions whose faith in the magnificent destiny of America still burns in the hearts of their descendants generations and generations later.

It is my hope, in issuing this proclamation, that I shall exert at least some small influence in directing public interest toward the Oregon Historical Caravan. It provides the background for a fuller realization of the cost at which our progress was attained, and offers inspiration to the seekers of the closer national unity we must have to carry on in the spirit and example of our pioneers.

With an appreciation of the past, we are better able to accept the grave challenge of the present and to chart an unflinching way through the uncertainties of the future.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused to be affixed the great seal of the State of Oregon. Done at Salem, the capital, this Third day of January, A.D., 1951.
