

SMITH RIVER

Word was received of the death of E. F. Trembley, 63, who passed away at Stanford Lane hospital, San Francisco, on June 41 following a short illness. While visiting here, he took seriously ill and was rushed to the hospital. He was well known in Crescent City where he managed the hotel for seven years, moving to Millbrae in 1942. Funeral services were held at St. Dunstan's Catholic church last Saturday and interment was at Holy Cross cemetery, San Francisco. Surviving are his widow, seven daughters and three sons, three sisters and five brothers. Among the daughters who reside in Smith River are Mrs. Agnes Westbrook and Miss Ann Trembley, who attended the funeral of their father.

Mercer-Fraser Co. of Eureka received the contract for graveling and surfacing the new highway from Smith River bridge to Valley View court. Work has begun. Gravel is being taken at Rowdy creek to be crushed and screened near Crag mill.

Dr. Harvey Kelty, recently moved from Reno, to purchase the new house from Robert Maris on Hwy 101, has opened his office in the rooming house of Caesar Frosini and is prepared to practice.

Gordon Miller in training in the service, stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, has a 19-day furlough and will visit his sister, Arlene and mother, Mrs. Velma Miller and other relatives. He has completed his basic training.

Miss Betty Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Tyler, who took a special course at Humboldt State the past year, left for Corvallis where she will attend summer school. She will teach at Brookings high next year.
