

Local Firm Will Sell Jamesway 'Line'

Arrangements have been completed whereby Brookings Feed & Seed will handle the nationally known Jamesway line of poultry, barn and hog equipment in this area. Since 1906 the James Mfg. Co., with branches in Fort Atkinson, Wis., Mount Joy, Pa., and Los Angeles, has specialized in the planning, equipping, and ventilating of farm buildings.

In addition to selling and servicing the Jamesway equipment, Brookings Feed & Seed will be in position to offer planning help to the dairy, poultry and livestock farmers of this section.

4-H Clubbers Tell of Summer School

Nine 4-H club girls, many of them on scholarships to 4-H summer school supplied by the Rotary club, put on the program at Tuesday's luncheon, with their escort, Cliff Jenkins, who drove the school bus.

With Kay Nichols as master of ceremonies, each girl told one phase of the experiences the entire group enjoyed while away the two weeks. Virginia Akers told of the trip to and from Corvallis; Janet Crump told of the county assembly; Joy Gott told of their "blind dates" and her experience with "Dan Cupid"—alias Cliff Jenkins; Elaine LeClair told of organizations of the various campus houses and the older group; Joan Pettegrew related much about classes; Fae Rausch told of the evening assemblies and parties. Accordion solos were played by Lois LeClair and Barbara Hedberg.

Cliff Jenkins said he had much pleasure in being the escort to such a grand group as Curry was able to send, and hoped that next year more could be sent.

Rotary Float To Be Built

The club float, which will carry the Queen and her Court, will be built Saturday evening and Sunday morning at the Dewey Akers place, with several members to help.

Voters Approve School Tax, Thurs.

Voters of Dist. No. 17, last Thursday evening, definitely signified that they wished the budget deficiency added to the tax roll, and voted 101 to 1 favoring the increase above the 6 per cent limitation.

Increased enrollment, brought on by coming of the plywood company, made this move necessary.
