

Canadian Band Is Billed, Gold Beach

GOLD BEACH—The Vancouver Junior Band, of Vancouver, B. C., is appearing at Gold Beach high school auditorium, at 8 p. m. July 24, under sponsorship of the Gold Beach chamber of commerce. This western Canadian band is an accomplished youth organization and will present a brilliant musical program with outstanding instrumental and drum majorette numbers.

The group is making a good-will tour through seven western states and Mexico. It is comprised of 29 boys and six girls, under the leadership of Gordon C. Olson, bandmaster.

There will be no admission, but a silver offering will be taken to help defray expenses of the organization while here.

Other Gold Beach Items—

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douthit and Babe Johnson, Mrs. Douthit's brother, returned from spending the Fourth of July holidays with the McKinnons at their ranch near Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Cushman and family stopped over night last week to look up friends in Gold Beach. Duane Jr. was home on leave before being shipped to an overseas assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sydow and sons and Fannie Hauber returned last week from an extended trip to the middle west.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boddy and son of Redding, Calif., spent a few days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bonatto. David will spend a part of his vacation with his sister.

Cheri and Virginia Knox and Doris McCain spent the weekend at Portland.

Mrs. Bill Gauntlett and children have arrived to make their home here. Bill met his family at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wahlberg returned home from Portland, where Nicky had spent the past few months in a hospital. Nick is feeling much better and says it is grand to be back home.

Mrs. Lex Fromm and Lucille Klinge, county school superintendent at Eugene, attended the National Educational Association convention at San Francisco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bailor and daughter, Vesper, and Sharon Jarrett attended the Lily Parade at Brookings, Sunday.
