

Wranglers Enjoy Beach Picnic, Sun.

Cleve Marks will have assurance of his winter's supply of beef steaks and roasts, for he was the lucky fellow to get the Checto Wranglers baby beef at the lily parade, Sunday.

Riding with the Wranglers in the parade, Sunday, were a number from Crescent City Horseman's Association. Following the parade about 50 of the Wranglers and guests enjoyed a picnic supper at Mill Beach. Later horse races and foot races were held.

The Wranglers have been invited to attend and ride in the parade at Klamath Rodeo, July 14-15 at Klamath, Calif.

Carpenters Seat Union Officers

Installation of officers of Carpenters and Joiners of America was held at V. F. W. hall Wednesday evening. Seated were:

- President—J. E. Fifield.
- Vice-Pres.—Clyde Braynard.
- Fin. Sec.—James Blue.
- Rec. Sec.—Sid Clendenin.
- Conductor—Wm. Hoffman.

A short meeting was held before a pot luck supper served to members and families. A large delegation from Crescent City and the Four-by-Four quartet, as well as local quartets entered into the evening's entertainment.

Free Rider's Creed

The dues-paying union member is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He provideth me with paid holidays and vacations.

So I may lie down in green pastures beside the still waters.

He restoreth my back pay;
He guideth my welfare without cost to me.

Even though I stray in the path of unrighteousness—for my money's sake.

Yea, though I alibi and pay no dues from generation to generation.

I fear no evil for he pays my way and protecteth me.

The working conditions he provideth they comfort me.

He annointeth my head with the oil of seniority.

He solaces my soul with a contract that protecteth my salary and provideth me with merit increases.

He fighteth my battles for pay raises and, even more, he speaketh strongly for my rights.

Yea, my cup runneth over with gratitude.

Surely, his goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life—free of cost.

And I shall dwell in the union house he hath built forever — and allow him to pay the bill.
Amen. (Unknown)
