

Truckers To Meet At Coquille, Thurs.

State industrial accident commissioners, and others foremost in the safety program will speak to a mass meeting of all truckers of southwestern Oregon at Coquille, Thursday, July 12, at 8 p. m., it was announced Monday of this week.

Tremendous increase in accidents in this section of the state make it necessary to call a halt to this apparent lack of safety precautions. Invited are logging truckers, lumber truckers, and all truck drivers, sawmill operators, truck insurance companies as well as all suppliers of these people.

It was pointed out that public sentiment had been aroused making it mandatory that some safety measures be adopted immediately.

Grangers Hear 4-Hers Reports

Meeting of Chetco Grange was highlighted last Friday evening by the reports given by the 4-H club members who won the local Grange scholarships to 4-H summer school at Corvallis. Both Virginia Akers, who gave the girls slant on the summer school, and Vernon Pettigrew, who gave the boys side of the life there, gave interesting and thorough reports. They were introduced by Clifford Jenkins, county agent, who also gave a short talk.

The float for the lily parade was discussed, the committee, headed by J. S. Clendenin, reporting the progress. A report of the state Grange meeting at Portland was made by the master of the Grange.

Following the meeting refreshments of watermelon, Ritz crackers and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne and Mrs. Kathryn Reekman. Refreshments for next meeting will be pot luck.

Merchants Edge Pelicans, 3 To 2

Crescent City Merchants continued their undefeated season by edging the Brookings Pelicans, 3-2 at Crescent City, on July 4.

Don Clauson, on the mound for the Merchants, was mighty stingy, allowing the Pelicans only four scattered hits, both the single runs scored in the fifth and sixth innings being of the un-earned variety, due to two errors by Chuck DeAutremont.

Bob Astin went all the way for Brookings and was almost as miserly with base hits as Clauson, allowing a total of six. Unfortunately two of the blooper variety came in the fifth inning, allowing all the Merchant runs. Astin then shut the door in the Merchants faces and pitched one-hit ball the remainder of the way but the damage had been done.

The Pelicans loaded the bases in the ninth with only one out, but Polando struck out and Hank Westbrook lifted a high fly to right field to end the threat.

The short score:
Brookings000 011 000—2 4 1
Crescent City 000 030 00x—3 6 2
Batteries: Astin and McLean; Clauson and McComb.
