

FILOSOFY

These may or may not be facts, but they are ramblings of an editor's mind, between the hours of v and c a. m.

Keep in step with yourself — don't worry about the rest of the parade.

So many people really need sympathy you shouldn't waste any on yourself.

The worst bankrupt in the world is the fellow who has lost his enthusiasm.

Tip to Motorists: Be a safe driver—check your car and also check accidents.

Economy is a way of spending money without getting any fun out of it.

Riches or success are of no value in this life unless shared with someone else.

It's next to impossible to keep the mind and the mouth open at the same time.

The race that is responsible for the greed and hate in the world is the human race.

The cost of living remains about the same—10 per cent more than a fellow makes.

You can't disarm nations, says a statesman, until you have disarmed suspicion.

The president's message on the state of the union comes close to being a report on the state of the world nowadays.
