

SMITH RIVER

The wedding of Miss Josephine Thelma Ward, daughter of Mrs. Grace Pitzer of San Diego, and Frank Albert Hellrig, son of Mrs. Emma Hellrig, of Harbor, was held Saturday evening, July 14, at 8:00 in Smith River Methodist church with Rev. P. C. Knudson officiating with a single ring ceremony, in presence of relatives and friends.

Bouquets of summer flowers decorated the piano and around the altar. Wearing royal blue crepe street dress, with white accessories the bride was given in marriage by Andrew Hoffeldt, a close friend of the family.

Bridesmaid was Gertrude Hinton, sister of the groom. Best man was Joseph Hellrig, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony congratulations were extended to them and they left on a wedding trip. They will make their home at Harbor where the groom is employed.

Week-end visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. C. Knudson were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Helms and daughter, Ruth of Chicago, Ill. The Helms are on a motor trip to the west coast, this being their first visit to the redwoods and ocean. They enjoyed seeing the redwood groves and other scenery along the coast.

Sgt. Claude Blagdon, who has completed his basic training in the 7th Armored Division of the army at Camp Roberts, has enjoyed a few days furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blagdon. A family reunion was held Sunday at the Blagdon home, with three brothers of Claude present: Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blagdon and children of Port Orford, Mr. and Mrs. Welton Blagdon and children of Smith River, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Blagdon of Crescent City. Claude left Tuesday evening for Camp Stoneman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bosch visited Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosch at Klamath, then attended the celebration, dare-devil boat race, held Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Westbrook and Mr. and Mrs. H. Edward Westbrook have returned home from a week's vacation of a combined business and pleasure trip to Portland, Washington and other points north.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jeter and daughter, Sally, of Hornbrook, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Buckner and family at Buckner's Island, while renewing acquaintances. Mr. Jeter is inspector at the Calif-Ore. station at Hornbrook.

Nursery Rhyme Portrayed In Theme For A Float Entry

"The old woman who lived in a shoe" was theme for George and Marie Funk's colorful and attractive float which appeared in the fifth annual Lily Blossom time Parade, July 8.

Judges told the Pilot "there were too many beautiful floats for the number of classifications" so that judging was difficult.

The Grange will sponsor a princess ball in August, at which time a princess to represent this end of the county at the county fair, will be chosen. The Grange candidate for princess will be Shirley Phillips, and other organizations are being asked to sponsor candidates for princess. A patriotic program was given after the meeting and then secret pals for the past year were revealed. Pot luck refreshments were then enjoyed.

The youth dance will be held Friday, July 20, at the Grange hall. Pot luck refreshments will be served.

Carson & Moore Lumber Co., a custom planing mill, just off Pacific avenue, is expected to be put in operation this week, perhaps by the time this paper reaches the mails. The company will employ eight to ten men.
