Reception Held For Carsons, Saturday

Chetco Rod & Gun Club rooms was the scene of a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Carson honoring their son and his bride, Earleen Stockton, of Los Angeles, last Saturday. The Carsons welcomed the guests with a receiving line of the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hardesty and Mr. and Mrs. Ray LaFontaine.

Earl Carson was the able soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Ross Putnam at her Hammond organ. Dancing followed.

Highlight of the reception came when the bride cut her wedding cake. The bridal table presented an especially lovely picture with tall tapers and delicate pink roses trailing from hobnail milk class vases. Mrs. Leonard Harvey served the wedding cake, Mrs. Ray LaFontaine presided at the punch bowl with Mrs. Don Carson pouring coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson were married in the First Presbyterian church, Reno, by Rev. Walter H. Hanna, on the afternoon of July 3. The bride wore a smart navy blue suit, white orchid and white accessories. The couple enjoyed their honeymoon in scenic Lassen Volcanic National Park. Mrs. Carson was formerly Earlene Stockman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wood of Los Angeles and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hardesty. Mr. Carson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Carson, of Harbor, and a popular member of the younger set of the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley have finished their third and last apartment in what was formerly the Winchuck Village store.
