LOCAL NEWS

Word has been received of the birth of a 9½-lb daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Benson, of Davenport, Iowa. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thompson of Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bickner of The Coffee Mill are paternal grandparents. Arthur will graduate as Doctor of Chiropractic at Palmer School of Chiropractic, in September.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Young, honoring Mrs. Mattie Smalley of Huntington Beach, Calif., were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skopec, Mrs. Carlos Means, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smalley of Garden Grove, Calif., and "Dizzy" Dean of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Smalley Sr. is mother of Mrs. Skopec.

SMITH RIVER

At a recent meeting of Del Norte Pomona Grange held at Crescent Redwood Grange, Leo Kloske of Smith River was elected master. Kloske fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of Tom Ewing last month.

Several important matters were discussed during the Grange session. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet room, including a beautifully decorated birthday cake, centering the table, honoring those members who observed birthdays in July. This was conducted under direction of lecturer Mrs. May Rutter.

The two small cottages occupied by Robert Owen and Welton Blagdon families are being moved a short distance on the same lot owned by Mrs. Evelyn Scott. The job is being done by house-moving contractor, Joe Miller. The county is in charge of the moving to make room for the county road being built to the freeway road just completed.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bosch are Mr. and Mrs. Burt Harris and son, Marvin of Gridley, Calif. Mr. Harris employed in the rice fields and Mrs. Harris works in the Gridley hospital. They are on vacation.

Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Harbor, made a brief visit at home of Mrs. Ella Plaisted Monday. Mrs. Thompson was returning from Crescent City where she visited her husband, who is confined to Seaside hospital for treatment for a heart ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown had as recent guests their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown and daughter, and a sister of Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Lucia Wolfe, of Kalam, Wash. On their return home they were accompanied by Miss Jo Nell Wolfe and Jerry Brown who spent several weeks at the Brown home.

Mrs. Agnes Maris who met her cousin, Miss Margaret Heptonstall who recently arrived from England, at San Francisco, accompanied by the former's daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Tyler of San Anselmo, to Smith River where she will visit at the Maris home, and her cousin, Mrs. Lily Woodrue. Mrs. Tyler left for her home Saturday.

Dr. H. M. Kelty left by plane on July 15 for Minnesota where he will enter Mayo clinic for observation and a general check-up on his health. His office will be closed while he is away for several weeks.

The four girls of Smith River Girl Scout troop who planned to spend a week at Lake of the Woods Scout camp near Medford, were unable to go to this camp Sunday, due to no transportation available.

H. Nilsen and son, Andrew, returned home Monday from a vacation trip over the week-end to Coquille where they visited a number of friends.

"It's always fair weather," inside your
Hamilton
AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES DRYER

Whatever the weather, you always have clean, sweet, dry warmth, at fingertip touch in your Hamilton Automatic Clothes Dryer. It gives you fully automatic drying... the final freedom from washday work and worry... a complete divorce from the tiresome stoop and stretch of hanging out wet wash... the uncertainty of sun or shower... the risk of rewashing from airborne smoke and soot.

You just toss in your clothes, straight from wringer or spinner, flip the switch and, by the time your next washerload is ready, the first is done... ready to iron or put away.

Let us demonstrate America's newest major appliance... come in TODAY and SEE the Hamilton for yourself.
