

Many Visit Store Opening, Monday

Opening in their new store, Monday after a prolonged delay, Young's 5 & 10 was greeted by a large crowd at the opening. The new store, said by many to be one of the finest in this section, is on the first floor of the new Manley building, next door to the theatre.

Last week the store carried a full page advertisement, telling of the opening day specials, and from comment on the part of the owners, most of these were bought immediately upon opening of the doors early Monday.

Courtier Sells Shop

Jake H. Rosen, formerly with Larry Barbershop at Grants Pass, and also the Redwood Hotel of that place, has purchased Don's Barber Shop, and took possession Monday.

Don Courtier, who established the shop late last fall, will join his wife, who is under doctor's care at Portland. He plans to undergo a cataract operation on his left eye later this summer.

LOCAL NEWS

Two horticulturists from the state agricultural department, inspecting the Stevenson blueberry acreage on Easy Street, say that it is the most productive in the state. The berries are so thick on the plants that they must be gone over three times for one picking. One hundred gallons were picked by the middle of July. The berries are sold locally and to Cedar Lane Cannery.

Elder Biggs, president of the Oregon conference has been invited to hold the first church service in the new church next Sabbath. Last Sabbath we were privileged to hear Elder W. B. Votaw, who has with his family, spent the past 24 years in India. He told of his experiences. In '46 when the greatest surrender of peoples and power were given by the British Empire in freeing India, he told of the Hindus not wanting any religious freedom in all India. That in Calcutta alone, thousands were slaughtered by Moslems, a regular reign of terror. The Moslems won, and now a constitution of India allows full religious freedom.
