

Hurst-Smith

Elsie May Haug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Haug of Silverton, Ore., and Daniel Richard Kirkpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo A. Kirkpatrick of Fort Bragg, Calif., were married at a quite home wedding Sunday, June 22 at 2 p.m. in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William J. West in Portland.

The bride wore a gown of sheer white topped with a lace yoke. Her ensemble included a lace cap and veil and a corsage of red rosebuds and a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Rev. Langbrough, a Lutheran minister of Portland, read the wedding vows. The bride was given away by her father and the couple's attendants were Mr. and Mrs. West.

After a week's stay in Portland the couple returned to Brookings where they will make their home.

OREGON'S NEW
RESPONSIBILITY
LAW

Became Effective . . .

...AUGUST 2, 1951

THIS LAW VIRTUALLY SAYS TO YOU: We quote . . . "within 50-days following a motor vehicle accident involving damage to property, or injuries, or death to any person, your driver's license and registrations will be suspended unless you deposit security sufficient to satisfy any judgments that may result from the accident."

The State will accept as security and proof of financial responsibility an auto liability policy, or a bond, or $11,000 in cash, or in certain securities.

COMPARE THIS CURRENT RATE FOR $5,000/$10,000 Bodily Injury and $5,000 Property Damage liability . . .

$10.10 EACH 6 MONTHS
(Slightly higher where there are drivers under 25)

Your best bet to prove financial responsibility under this law is automobile liability insurance.

*Plus $5.00 Non-Recurring fee at beginning of policy.
