New Adventist Church Opened

The beautiful new Seventh-day Adventist church opened its doors to its many friends and visitors last Sabbath and every pew was filled. The interior is finished in gumwood with dark mottled tile floor throughout, with rich green carpet runners in the aisles and on the rostrum in the chapel. The pews are form-fitting and are of Philippine mahogany.

Many lovely bouquets and baskets of glads, asters and carnations as well as potted plants brought in by friends beautified the front of the rostrum.

The church service began at 10:45 with fifteen minutes of special music. Mr. Peterson of Pacific Union College played a violin solo accompanied by his wife at the piano. Mrs. Gilbert Christensen also played the Holy City as a violin solo, accompanied by her sister and Mrs. Walter J. Galbraith sang "Holy Spirit, Light Divine," with a violin obligato played by Mrs. Christensen.

The new pastor, Manson Metcalf, was the speaker, taking for his key text II Timothy 1:7, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love, and of a sound mind," and brought out that in these days when fear of what the future may bring is filling men's hearts, it is comforting to a Christian to know that through His Word God has given assurance that when all is fully surrendered to Him, there is no need to fear for then one may have the sense of God's presence which brings the peace that passes all understanding.
