

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Adams and daughters, Alice and Janice, from Salem are spending their vacation with Mrs. Adams brother Archie Hendricks and family this week. Miss Alice was May Queen of Willamette university this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Benson and month-old child, of Davenport, Iowa, are spending a vaca-

M. G. BECKER

Real Estate Broker

1/4-mile north on Highway 101

Roy F. Sunderland, Salesman

Hours: 9 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.

40 ACRES bordering Hwy. 101, good creek, nice ocean view. $5000 will handle.

NEW 2-bedroom home and 1 1/2 acres in Fruitdale district, Grants Pass, 16x18 living room, lovely valley view, good soil. Sell or trade for Brookings property. $8500.

1 1/2 VIEW ACRE, 1 mile from town, water right on good spring. $2100 with $750 down.

SPECIAL: Sacrifice 2 bedroom home with large lot, close in, very livable. This won't last long at $2625.

SOME good investment properties in Curry County. Come in and see what we have to offer.

7 ACRES, 1 spring and another available. Practically all cleared level land. Excellent soil. $1000 down.

OCEAN FRONT lot 80x100 ft. $1400 with $700 down.

LOTS—Various locations, with or without view, city water, priced from $700 to $1550. Easy terms.

Other homes, ocean frontage, lots and acreage.

I Sell The Earth!

NO ROAD

MAKES NO DIFFERENCE TO A 'JEEP'

A 'Jeep' will get you there when no other vehicle can! With 4-wheel-drive, better maneuverability and rugged build, a Universal 'Jeep' travels where there are no roads... climbs steep grades... goes through deep mud, snow and sand. Ask us for a demonstration of this tough, "go-anywhere" vehicle.

4-Wheel-Drive UNIVERSAL Jeep

COOS MOTOR CO.

258 So. 2nd COOS BAY

tion with his mother, Mrs. Agda Bickner, and family. Arthur will return to Davenport for a year of graduate work before looking for a location for his practice of chiropractic.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Coiner and family left last week for Medford, their former home, to live. While here Mr. Coiner conducted a radio repair service in addition to working in the woods.

Work on the second section of the new Manley building is almost to the first floor level, with hopes it will be ready for occupancy by Oct. 15. Roy Weidman and his crew are making every effort to achieve this.

Power shortages played havoc with the evening show at the Pine Cone, as well as many other functions about town. Dust on the transformers was reported to be the cause of the outage, although this is not confirmed.

Another artist in our midst is Ethel Jochens, who does beautiful work in ceramics. She has her own oven and pours the molds, dries and readies them for the oven, then paints and gives the pottery a final firing. A completely finished process locally.

Mrs. E. E. Hanscam, Sr., went to Portland by bus on Monday for a check-up on her eyes at Doerenbecher hospital.

The American Legion Auxiliary members honored Mrs. Ben Kern with a stork shower on Wednesday, Aug. 15, at the home of Mrs. Kay Kessler. About 20 members were present. Appropriate games, refreshments and gifts for the honored guest filled the program of the afternoon. Mrs. Kern is past president of the auxiliary.

SMITH RIVER

O. M. Rice announces the engagement of his daughter, Elma Althea, to Dr. Raymond Kinmouth of Belchertown, Mass. They plan to be married the first part of September at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Park at Albany, Ore. Mrs. Park is a sister of Miss Rice. Following a wedding trip through the northwest the couple will return to Smith River and make plans to fly east by plane to make their home. A sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. Favor, will arrive here to care for the father, O. M. Rice at Rice home.

Mrs. Eva Hill received word from her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lockwood, who recently moved to Bell Springs in Mendocino county where Lockwood will be caretaker on a 3000 acre stock ranch of Chester Luisier. There are a thousand head of sheep on this ranch and other stock. He reports he is well pleased with his new job.

Work is being done on the Westbrook subdivision along Smith River's new freeway. Construction of the roads in the subdivision is being done by Mercer Fraser Co. Several new houses are being built in the Westbrook tract and more new homes will go up soon. Westbrook Bros. are laying plans to build a new store on their property near the new freeway.

Miss Betty Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Tyler of State Line Motel has arrived home from Corvallis where she completed summer school study at O.S.C. Miss Tyler, a graduate of Del Norte high school and Humboldt State college, has been engaged to teach at Brookings high school when school opens September 4. She will teach home economics and physical education.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrom have returned home after completing their studies at summer school at Stanford university at Palo Alto. Mr. Ostrom is principal of Smith River Union school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grupp and children, who have resided here for several years, where Grupp was employed in the logging woods, left the first of the week for Manchester, Wash.

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

Dotty Lou Harry, a niece of the Al Volcks, has been a visitor in their home for the past week. She left Wednesday evening to join her mother in Eugene and from there will go to her home in Astoria.

Dolores and Patricia Brachler are enjoying a weeks vacation among friends in Tulelake, Calif.

William Howes, Oregon State Grange deputy, called at the C. H. Brocks home Monday afternoon.

Juvenile Grange met Wednesday evening at the Sixes Grange hall, in extra session to practice their ritualistic work. They are getting ready for inspection next month by State Grange Deputy William Howes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry and Joanne and Mrs. Paul Smith visited friends in Gold Beach Sunday.

Mrs. R. M. Morrill left the early part of the week for Wisconsin where she will visit her mother.

Jean Everette and Hal train and Patty Boice visited Coos County Fair at Myrtle Point Friday.

On their way up Sixes River for a visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. George Kronenberg of Bandon stopped in Langlois for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrill have gone to Sumner, Wash., to get their son, John, who has been visiting an aunt there.

Joe Nilsen returned Friday from taking a load of sheep to Eureka, Calif.

While on their trip to Garberville, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shortridge of Glen Flora Bogs report attending the Humboldt County Fair at Ferndale.

Mrs. Flora Fields, department president of U.S.W.V.A. and Zedonia Quick, department treasurer, were visitors at the Otto Hackle home two days this week. They are on their way to the national convention of Spanish American War Veterans at Grand Rapids, Mich. They will stop over in Los Angeles, Carlsbad Caves, the Grand Canyon and Old Mexico on the way there.

Mrs. Richard Hildebrand is back from a visit with her mother and other relatives in Long Beach, Calif. She returned Wednesday, bringing her younger sister, Patty, with her.

A committee of juvenile grange members, under the direction of their matron, Mrs. Dean Collins, met at the Sportsmen club house all day Saturday to make corsages for sale at the Queen's Dance Saturday evening. Mrs. Frances Autrey and Mrs. Ethe-leen Thompson assisted. The juveniles are working hard to procure funds for building a new juvenile grange hall.

The Glen Noble home up Flora's creek has had a face lifting job. A new roof and side walls give it a very attractive appearance.

Mrs. Albert Britton returned home from Compton and Los Angeles, Calif., bringing with her a daughter, Mrs. R. A. Yensen of Los Angeles. Mrs. Yensen is visiting at the Britton home and with a sister, Mrs. Bob Powerie, of Myrtle Point.

Don't forget your jellies and jams for the Home Extension booth. You may leave them with Nana Moore and they must be there by the evening of August 20.

An Adventist preacher will be in charge of church services at the Community church Sunday, September 2.

Mrs. Roy Stein of Portland has joined her husband who recently became superintendent at the Langlois cheese factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Pugh visited Community church services Sunday morning. They are from Garwood, New Jersey, and are enjoying a trip through our beautiful northwest. They have visited a daughter in Los Angeles and will stop at a daughter's home in Rochester, New York, on their way home.

Nancy Moore left Thursday to visit friends in Myrtle Creek. Before returning she expects to visit a week with her sister in Medford, Ore.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Richard Hofsess, whose father, Henry Albert Parry of Coquille, passed away August 12. Besides Mrs. Hofsess he is survived by his wife and two sons. Funeral services were held Friday in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adolphson and Mrs. Enna Sheridan of Sea View Ranch were Sunday callers at the C. H. Brooks home. They had been to Coos Bay and Coos County Fair at Myrtle Point.

Roger Moore had a short visit with his parents the "Dinty" Moore's this week. Roger is employed by the forest service and had been up Flora's creek on the fire there.

JAKE'S Barber Shop

Formerly Don's Barber Shop!

Hours:

8-6, Monday to Friday 8-7 on Saturdays!

KATHRINE BEAUTY SALON

Evenings by Appt.

Phone 395

Near Baxter Church

BUDD'S MEATS

AT REDFIELD'S MARKET

Budd Carr, Proprietor

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY - SATURDAY

Armour's Crescent Brand—Nice and Lean

SLICED BACON lb. 49c

Sliced

BACON ENDS & PIECES lb. 33c

Lean and Tender—Shoulder Cuts

VEAL STEAK lb. 87c

2-lb. average; no waste; fine for small

COTTAGE STYLE family.

BONELESS HAMS lb. 98c

ALSO STEWING HENS AND PAN READY FRYERS—2-lb. average

Seeds -- Seeds -- SEEDS

COVER CROPS -- PERMANENT

PASTURES

LAWNS AND GARDENS

WE HAVE ALFALFA HAY

See Us For Mixtures and Prices

ORDER YOUR FERTILIZERS NOW

BROOKINGS FEED AND SEED

C. F. Yah

Phone 313

BROOKINGS PRODUCE STAND

FRUITS --- PRODUCE

Fruits In Season

CANNING PEACHES - PEARS

NEXT TO BROOKINGS TRAILER PARK