

Pelicans Show Low Averages

Eighteen games: Eight won, ten lost.

	AB	H	Pct.
Clausen	7	4	.571
McComb	6	3	.500
Clingman	4	2	.500
Edwards	4	2	.500
Selsor	27	11	.407
Staab	5	2	.400
DeAutremont	24	9	.375
Kruk	8	3	.375
Matson	65	23	.354
Kimura	41	12	.292
H. Westbrook	43	12	.280
Peterson	38	10	.263
McLean	69	18	.261
Hanauska	8	2	.250
Blalock	8	2	.250
Astin	44	9	.205
Yamor	15	3	.200
Bretzel	5	1	.200
Barger	5	1	.200
Johnson	59	11	.186
Easturn	7	1	.143
Nierman	38	5	.132
Sowers	8	1	.125
Maciel	8	1	.125
Polando	42	6	.119
R. Westbrook	19	0	.000
Mello	6	0	.000
Parrish	4	0	.000
Clark	4	0	.000
Friend	3	0	.000

Team averages .624 154 .247

PITCHING AVERAGES

	I.	Pct.
Hanauska	2	0 1.000
Clausen	1	0 1.000
Selsor	1	0 1.000
Kruk	1	1 .500
Johnson	2	1 .666
Nierman	1	2 .333
Astin	0	4 .000
Maciel	0	2 .000

200 New Books For Library

Two hundred new state books recently have appeared on the shelves of the Chetco Community Library and the following new books have been purchased from library funds:

- "Greatest Story Ever Told," by Foulton Oursley.
- "The Yearling," by Rallings.
- "Trigger John's Son," by Robinson.
- "Kon-Tiki," by Heyerdahl.
- "Prisoner of the Redwoods," by Alfred Powers.
- "Mrs. Piggie-Wiggles Magic," by Betty MacDonald.
- "Bobcat," by Anderson.

Recent donations of books have been made by Mrs. Harry Lock-

ANN'S DRESS SHOP

NEW STOCK OF

SKIRTS and BLOUSES

DRESSES

Small Sizes — 9 to 15

DAHLIAS!

SEE THE LARGEST COLLECTION OF DAHLIAS IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Over 400 varieties will bloom this Fall.

Also Tuberous Begonias and Fuchsias.

A large selection of Dutch Bulbs will be ready the last of September.

Look for Our Sign Opposite the Fort Dick Post Office

Visitors Welcome

King's Valley Road

Fort Dick - Calif.

land, Mrs. Eugene Ackley and Kay Panzer, and their generosity has been greatly appreciated.

At the present time it will not be possible to open the Library Thursday evenings as previously announced as Lois Spangler, the librarian, has had to leave town and so far no one has been found to take her place.

Plans Festival

Members of the Harbor Community club held a special committee meeting on Friday, September 7 at the Grange hall to discuss details of the forthcoming Fall Festival to be held on November 9 at the Grange hall, Harbor, for the benefit of the Chetco Community Library.

LANGLOIS

By MARION BROOKS

Church services conducted by Elder Blehm and Elder Wynn of the Seventh-day Adventist church of North Bend were especially pleasing to all who attended Langlois Community church last Sunday. Mr. Wynn and wife sang a duet, Mr. Wynn sang a solo, and Mrs. Wynn and Mrs. Blehm played a piano duet. Elder Blehm brought a very inspirational message.

Visiting at the Charley Wise home in Denmark are two brothers of Mrs. Wise and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Breshears and son Charles of Camerillo, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Breshears and son John of Buffalo, Mo. They arrived Wednesday a week ago and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Breshears and son left for home Wednesday; Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Breshears and son left for Buffalo Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woolbridge of Bakersfield, Calif., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fletcher Tuesday through Thursday. They were on their honeymoon. The ladies are sisters.

Sunday school met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brooks to plan an attendance contest for the next four months. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Britton, Mr. Shoop, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Charlie Jensen. Robert Thetford, Mrs. Eva Donaldson, Mrs. Murphy and several other teachers of the Langlois schools attended the teachers' workshop at Coquille the last three days of the week.

Mrs. Ruth Cox and daughter Joan visited friends in Roseburg over the weekend.

Mrs. O. E. Baker and son Patric of Medford are spending a week with Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore. They accompanied Nancy Moore, who returned Thursday from a vacation spent at Myrtle Creek and Medford.

O. L. Moore left Thursday for a ten-day visit to Tigard and vicinity, his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shoop and family visited with Mr. Shoop's mother in Salem over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce McDonald of Denmark, Mrs. Glenn Noble and Mrs. Lute Henry of Langlois shopped in Coquille Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett Strain, Hal Strain and Patty Boice, Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry of Langlois and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald of Denmark were among those who attended the Lionel Hampton dance in Coquille. Wilbur and Judy Jensen appeared as guests with the band.

Mrs. Millard is here on leave from San Francisco, Calif., and is enjoying a visit with her husband, Colonel Homer Millard, and the many improvements he has made to their home on Langlois Hill during her absence.

Church services September 9, conducted by the Lutheran pastor, Rev. Shultze, at the Langlois Community church.

Miss Deanna Churchill has spent the past three weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.

Dave MacKenzie of Eureka. She arrived home Friday.

PICNIC AT HAMBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Ariel Gilbert and two children of Lipton, Calif., are here visiting Mrs. Gilbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sigamam for a week.

A picnic was held in their honor at Humbug State Park last Sunday. Relatives and friends present were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sidanam, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Sypher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strain and Le Cretia, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haga and Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher and Bobby Jean, Mr. and Mrs. John Bjeng and Kitty, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Strain and Hai, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dunnigan, Joe, Betty, and Sharon, Mr. Harold Sypher and Richard, Mrs. Vernon Smith, Donnie and Jerry, Arthur Sypher and Robert Rambeau of Langlois.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kangas, Mrs. Helma Anderson, Kenny and Ernie, Geraldine Robinson, Walter Austin and Arthur Pierce of Coquille and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sypher, Carrol, Nancy and Linda of Ten Mile.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Ask and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Thor Ask, former owners of the Brookings market, now living on Vashon Island in Puget Sound, were in Brookings late last week. They stopped at the apartment of Mrs. Ina DeMoss, mother of Mrs. Ther Ask, who is in Portland at present visiting a daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincent, son and daughter, of Oswego, were Brookings visitors last week on Tuesday and Wednesday. Jimmy is a sophomore at Portland university this year and Nancy will enter as freshman. Photographer for the Oregonian for the past year, Ralph has been in Portland most of the time while Mrs. Vincent and Nancy continued to live in Brookings until recently because of business interests.

A new barber chair has been added at Jake's Barbershop this week, adding much to the general appearance, as well as the efficiency.

Mr. and Mrs. Harriman of Newberg and their son, Charles, just in from Guam, and on a Labor Day pass, met at the home of Harriet Baker last week for their first meeting since the son landed in the U.S.

Roy Stevenson recently spent a 10-day leave in Brookings with friends while recuperating from a knee injury and hospitalization. He is slated to go out on a submarine on his return to San Francisco.

Mary Storset, who with her husband, Edward, were owners of the Cur-Del Cleaners some time ago, has embarked for Anchorage, Alaska, where Ed has a job with the government. Their son, Howard Grosbeck, is now with the Marines in Washington state.

Arthur Bollinger is able to sit up for a short time each day now that he is recovering from a form of pneumonia.

Visiting their parents over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Christenson of Sacramento, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tygart, and son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tygart of Butte Falls, Ore.

C. A. Dimond, one of the owners of Paper Mills agency of Oregon, Portland, was a caller here Tuesday, on his periodic trip over the state. He was once the editor and publisher of the Newberg Graphic.

A capacity crowd filled Baptist Community church Sunday at the first annual Friendship Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Pavy are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haupa.

Henry Shirteff of Myrtle Creek visited Everett "Chap" Chapman last week. They did some deep sea fishing with favorable results.

Mrs. Neal Martin visited and shopped in Eureka, Calif., last week.

Willard Graham just returned from a long trip which took him to the East Coast of Georgia. Going, he passed through the Kansas flood area and says the damage to homes and property was unbelievable. As a delegate from the Adventist church, Mr. Graham attended the layman's convention at Grand Ledge, Michigan. He drove a new car home from Detroit.

LILY BULB GROWERS & BUYERS

WE ARE at your service again this year for hauling your bulbs. . . . Pick-up from shed . . . transportation to rail car . . . Arrangements for rail car and icing . . . Billing out of car. . . All services included in our low rate.

Ice Certificated Carrier - Fully Insured

COAST FREIGHT LINES

DAVE FRANKLIN

Box 300 - COOS BAY - Phone 1421

Contact Young's Variety Locally

THE CHETCO INN

"At the Sign of the Golden Goat"

Brookings, Oregon

SPECIAL: Two connection rooms with four good single beds, private connecting bath, for four persons with meals on six days, by the week, per person, $30.00. Room for husband and wife without daily hotel service with meals on six days, per person, $25.00. Shower bath facilities are available.

FOOD BY ADRIAN: Famous Chef, except on Wednesday by MOLLY, "The best cook in Southern California."

Dining Room is open for Dinner, a la carte, week nights, 7 - 8 p.m. Saturday, 6-10 p.m., Sunday, 2:30 to 8:30. Dinners from $1.50 $2.00 to $3.00.

COOKING CONTEST: THE CHETCO INN will give a prize of $100.00 to the amateur cook who cooks the best Sunday dinner for our hotel dining room as a guest cook. A fee of $10.00 for each dinner will be paid to each contestant. The winning cook will be on the air in a radio program at the close of the contest.

SEND FOR FURTHER DETAILS.

Are you a good cook? Do you want to demonstrate your art? Do you want to prove your ability to your family?

ENTER THE COOKING CONTEST FOR GUEST COOKS CHETCO INN, BROOKINGS, OREGON