

LANGLOIS NEWS

By MARION BROOKS

E. Baker and son Pat, who have been visiting Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, returned to their home in Medford Wednesday. Mr. Moore and daughter, Nancy, accompanied them to North Bend from where they went to Medford by air.

A. A. Thorhayen (Skinny) was taken to Mast hospital early this week after suffering a severe attack at his home. He had recovered sufficiently to return home on Thursday.

Mrs. Nancy Sorenson's rooming house is all decked out with a new roof. L. C. Autrey and Charles Button have been doing the work.

Girl Scouts regular meeting was held September 5 at 3:30 p.m. at the Sportsmen's club house. Mrs. Archie Aldropp, their leader, was in charge. New officers were elected as follows: President, Jean Sypher; vice president, Jeanette Thompson; scribe, Mary Shoop; treasurer, Velma White. Two council members, Patricia Mermilloid and Arlene Kerber. These six make up the court of honor. News reporter Joan Cox. Mrs. Docia Sweet was a visitor from Sixes Grange, which sponsored the Girl Scouts organization here in Langlois. Cookies, cocoa and sandwiches were served. Mrs. Caryl Sweet will attend the next two meetings and give lessons in textile painting.

Mrs. Charles Doane and Mrs. Wilbur Sypher were in Coos Bay

Arlie Bovee, who formerly cooked at the Langlois Grill, was in Langlois on his way to Portland to recuperate from a serious auto accident in which he was injured. He has been in the Crescent City hospital for some time and will be in a cast for another six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nilsen of Langlois Hill attended the state fair at Salem Sunday. They took Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stoncypher and Joan, and Mr. and Mrs. Hefner with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mary, H. S. Cadman, Krystal Lee MacKenzie and Frank Moore attended state fair at Salem the first of the week.

Pomona Grange met at Ophir Grange hall for an all-day session on Saturday. Fred Adams gave a report on the interim committee study of the control of our salmon streams and the results to fish life. It was his opinion that the control of these streams should be visited in the fish commission with limited commercial fishing of these streams and ample protection of spawning areas. He disapproved of the practice of turning cutthroat trout into salmon streams as they feed on the fingerling salmon. The lecture program consisted of group songs led by Lecturer Bea Phipps and a discussion of the "Crusade for Freedom" movement with Vernon Kolen, county chairman, and Miss Ericson, publicity chairman, giving a history and aims of the organization. Duet by Mr. and Mrs. Art Sweet and "Highlights of My Vacation" by several members. A conference meeting with State Grange officers was announced for October 23 with Ophir Grange hall again as meeting place. Next meeting of Pomona to be at Chetco grange with lecture of Pomona officers. Ophir Grange is to be congratulated on their new hall. They are making splendid progress with their building program and will have one of the finest grange halls in the state when completed. Pomona Grange thoroughly enjoyed their meeting in this hall.

Henry Adolphson escorted the Curry County Fair queen, Jo Ellen Sparhawk of Ophir, and the two princesses, Katherin Dennis of Northern Curry and Joanne Clendenin of Southern Curry, to the state when completed. Today and Tuesday. Former Queen Pat Hess and Mrs. Dennis were in the party. They were the guests of the Curry County Fair board.

Sixes Grange met in regular session on Saturday evening. One candidate in first and second degree and four in third and fourth degrees were given obligation. Plans for a minstrel show to be held September 29 were discussed. Juvenile Grange will meet Wednesday evening, September 12 to be judged on the good of the order, opening and closing grange. Mr. Wm. Howes, Oregon State Grange deputy will be in attendance and do the judging. All juvenile members and all honorary members are urged to be in attendance and give these young folk the support they deserve.

Rev. Shultze of the Lutheran church was in charge of the church services at the Community church this past Sunday. Mr. Love of Christian college will be here next week. The new contest at Sunday school was started this past Sunday and all members are urged to do their part to make their side the winning side.
