

LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

James Heator of Denmark overturned his truck on the approach to Elk River Bridge, badly damaging it. He received a few bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morrill left Saturday for Portland and a visit to the Pacific International show. They returned late Monday. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks attended the livestock and cared for the two boys.

Among those from here who attended the marine band concert at Eugene were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen, Judy and Wilbur Jensen, Joanne Henry, Mrs. Everett Strain, Hal Strain and Patty Boice, Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mary Donaldson, Madelyn Johnson, Lee Tucker, Charles Clarke, Vera Cadman, Noel Martin, Dick Everest, Barbara Phillips and Chas. Bullock.

Bertie Britton, freshman at the University of Oregon, was a visitor of her home last week-end.

During freshman initiation at Langlois high, Gary Bruchler fell and injured his arm badly.

Mrs. Harold C. Sypher returned home Oct. 8, from Mast hospital, where she was a surgical patient for a few days.

Mrs. Wilbur Sypher and Mrs. Dorothy Doane entertained with a birthday party in honor of Jean Sypher's 13th birthday last Friday at the grade gym. Bingo and other games with prizes were enjoyed. Cake and Jello were served.

Girl Scouts held their regular meeting Oct. 10 with their leader, Mrs. Archie Aldropp. Jeanette Thompson, Dolores Bruchler served refreshments.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Keeling, a baby girl, Oct. 10, at North Bend.

Mrs. T. S. Harrington of Denmark fell last Wednesday and broke several ribs.

Mrs. Shirley Norris and Jean are visiting Shirley's sister, Mrs. L. D. Keeler at Anchor Point, Alaska. She has written her parents, the John Chenoweths that they intend to remain in Alaska all winter.

Bob Zimmerman's sister, Mrs. Douglas Beeson, husband and daughter of Kelso, Wash., spent from Monday to Thursday at the Zimmerman home. On the same day an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bray of Tacoma, stopped over night on their way from California.

Mrs. Docia Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Phipps are on a trip to Washington. While there Mrs. Sweet will visit a sister at Wenatchee, and the Phipps will attend a Grange hall dedication.

The older group of Brownies met Wednesday at the grade gym with the ir leader, Kitty Tucker. They finished their project of puppet making and also dressed them. Mrs. Tucker treated the ten girls to candy.

At the same time the younger Brownies met with their leader, Mrs. Rae Steddom. Eighteen were present.

Sixes Grange met Saturday. Degree work in the third and fourth degrees were demonstrated to Mr. and Mrs. Al Berger and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thetford. It was announced that the HEC would meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Slocum on Thursday. On Nov. 13 the International Harvester Co. will demonstrate the ways of preparing frozen foods for the deep freezer at the Grange hall. Hall also has been loaned to the local P.T.A. for a square dance.

Kitchen Shower Held
Recently a kitchen shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Quigley, honoring Mrs.

Lois Kosbau. Those unable to attend sent presents, too.

Juvenile Box Social
At the next regular meeting of Sixes Grange the juveniles will have an open meeting and will have a box social. It is to be a masquerade, but no one will be turned away because they are unmasked. The public is invited. Square dancing will be featured. The date is Oct. 27 at Sixes hall.

Stork Shower Held
Mrs. Don Whereat entertained at her home with a stork shower for Mrs. Lloyd Clauson, Sat., Oct. 6. Many nice presents were received and a pleasant afternoon spent.

First School Play of Year
The first three-act play of the year to be given by Langlois High students will be sometime in December. The play and cast has been chosen by Robert Thetford, who will direct the production.

The play is a farce-comedy in three acts by Robert S. Clair, entitled: "The Cannibal Queen."

Tentative members of the cast are: Venedia Peterson, Glenda Holycross, Noel Martin, Charles Clark, Madelyn Johnson, Mary Donaldson, Joanne Henry, Clyde Quigley, Shirley Phillips, Bert Britton, Dick Everest, Iris Pabbin and LeElla Kamp.

High School Carnival Due
Langlois high students will hold their annual carnival Saturday evening at the H. S. gym. Something new and different is planned this year regarding booths.
