

Bible Speaker Told Hope Of The World At Lecture, Sunday

The speaker at the Bible Auditorium last Sunday night, presented the topic: "The Hope of the World," which was illustrated by a screen.

He told of the perilous times in which we now live, when mens hearts are filled with fear of war and atomic bomb. He presented Bible prophecies which speak of the preparations for war while talking peace. "For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them." 1 Thess. 5:3.

"It is not peace, but war," he declared. One of these days the last war will be fought and 'thy people shall be delivered, and every one that shall be found written in the book." Dan 12:1.

The speaker said: "It will be wonderful to see Jesus come if we are prepared to meet Him."

How will He come? With a great cloud of angels and in great glory. (Matt. 25:31) "As he ascended into heaven so will He return." (Acts 1:11). The graves of His sleeping children will be opened, and with the living saints will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air. Some will be ready to meet Him, and some will not. The only hope of the world is in Jesus Christ.

Chetco Grange Met Friday Eve

The second October meeting of Chetco Grange was held Friday, with Mr. and Mrs. Eyckoff of Myrtle Creek as visitors. During the business meeting it was decided to enter a number in the PTA program later this year. A petition was received from the State Grange to initiate a bill at the next general election to make standard time the only time for Oregon, with daylight savings to be outlawed for the state. Mrs. Edna Weigel volunteered to take charge of the petition and obtain names of voters for it.

The Home Economics chairman, Ruby Harvey, spoke on Christmas cards the ladies of the Grange are selling, and after the meeting she displayed the cards and took orders. She also spoke on the coming Pomona Grange which will be held here on Nov. 10.

Walter Pearmine, agriculture committee chairman, spoke on the meeting of the County PMA committee which had met at Gold Beach that day.

The lecturer, Hazel Hendry, announced that Booster Night would be held on Nov. 16, with the local Grangers inviting their friends in for the program and social evening. She presented an interesting program after the meeting. Chetco Grange was organized in October, 1930, so it is now 21 years old, this month, and has approximately 140 members.

The refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carson and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hyland, served refreshments at tables decorated in the Hallowe'en spirit. The next meeting, Nov. 2, will be election of officers.

Soil Conservation Talks Are Billed

A series of educational meetings to let the farmers of Curry county know something about the functioning and work of a soil conservation district have been arranged for next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, according to Clifford Jenkins, county agent.

Farmers interested in erosion control, drainage, improvement of irrigation systems, channel alignment and other phases of land and water conservation will find the meetings of interest.

Howard Cushman, executive secretary, State Soil Conservation committee of Oregon, and Lester Davenport, soil conservationist from the S.C.S. office in Grants Pass will attend these meetings. Farmers will be told of the work in other districts and how they operate, how much it will cost the farmers to set up and conduct the district and about the work on individual farms.

If after the meetings farmers of Curry county wish to proceed with the organization of such a district steps will be taken to organize. The meetings are set: Oct. 25 at Chetco Grange at 1:30 p. m.; Oct. 25 at County extension office, Gold Beach at the same hour and Oct. 26, at Sixes Grange hall at 1:30 p. m.
