

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hibbard of Harbor spent some time the last of October in Washington, where they once lived. Mr. Hibbard is now hospitalized at Eugene, and will stay at the home of his daughter for two weeks after being discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Low, of Salem, former residents of this area, are spending a few days in Brookings this week.

Several of Amber Campbell's friends surprised her with a birthday party. Sunday evening. She was presented with a gift as well as a cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huffman are enjoying a visit with Bill's mother, who is here from Ashland. She is hoping to establish a business here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr are at Portland and vicinity this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Later (Ruth Hasset), left Sunday night by bus for Portland and Bangor, Me. Loren was recently stationed at Kodiak, Alaska with the army. They will visit Loren's relatives. Mrs. Later and baby will stay for three months. Loren will return to a California base at the end of a 30-day furlough.

Bob Church is enjoying a leave from the navy. His mother went to San Diego, and they came to Brookings by car. Bob drove a buddy on to Portland, soon after their arrival here. Friends hope Bob will recognize the old town.

On Mel Venter's "Breakfast Gang" program, Tuesday morning was heard the voice of Clayton Hicks, an accountant living at Redmond, Oregon, who was in San Francisco the first of the week on business. Clayton is the son of Rev. E. C. Hicks, of this place. He was formerly with the First National Bank of Portland, at Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson of Santa Rosa, Calif., were brief visitors in this area Monday. They had just returned from an extended trip to Washington, D. C. which took most of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson once lived at McMinnville, Oregon, and are acquainted with Leo Pfeil.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sund will be among those from this area attending the Stanford-W. S. C. game, Saturday at Palo Alto when the Stanford team, tied for league lead will face the ever-dangerous Cougars which have been the scourge of many teams this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincent, while on their visit to Brookings over the week-end, told of seeing Lazella Sternberg at a Portland hospital. Lazella, they report, is cheerful, but still is so helpless she cannot feed herself easily. They asked the Pilot to mail a copy each week to her, that she might keep in touch with those kind people who did so much for her cause following her tragic burning early last spring.

Jennings fleece won first in competition with over 360 from eight states and Alaska in the braid class at Pacific International Exposition at Portland last month. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, now of Langlois, formerly lived in this area and their friends will be glad to learn of this honor.
