

LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

Al Volck has been at Mast hospital for minor surgery. He entered Friday and is expected to home by Sunday.

Hazel Hofsess with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlappi of Coos Bay were called to Redding, Calif., Monday by the death of a sister-in-law. While on their way there, the car overturned at Weaverville but all came out with but minor injuries. They finally returned home by bus, arriving Friday.

The Junior Brownies, with Mrs. Rae Steddum as leader, are now making felt coin purses that are brown with gold yarn. They meet regularly in the grade school on Wednesday afternoon. About 18 belong to the group.

Juvenile Grangers held their box social last Saturday. A big crowd enjoyed the evening of dancing and well-filled boxes. Of those who came masked, prizes went to: Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sabin, first for comic costume and Marianne Swanney first for the best looking costume.

Hallowe'en Parties Given

There will be several Hallowe'en parties given by room mothers, assisted by the students at the grade school. There will be a party for the second, third and fourth grades with room mothers Lorane Zimmerman and Virginia Hendricksen in charge.

Mrs. Wilma Jensen, assisted by other mothers, is giving Mrs. Livermore's eighth grade a Hallowe'en party in the evening of Hallowe'en. Mrs. Louise Clauson is giving the first grade a party. Mrs. Glen Kerber is helping refreshments and games. Mrs. Stein is giving the party for the seventh grade, assisted by other of room mothers.

California State Grange, held at San Jose at the civic auditorium Oct. 15-19, was a success. State Grange Master George Sehlmeier presided over the meeting of more than 3000 Grangers of all parts of the state. A number of resolutions were passed. Past Master, Ray Gill of Portland, was present. George Sehlmeier of Sacramento was re-elected master for the 23rd consecutive year. Other state officers were retained for another year.

Santa Barbara was selected for the 1952 convention.

Mrs. James Hocking was hostess for a Penny Wise plastic party held Monday evening at the social room of the church. Mrs. Ruth Knudsen is sales lady for these plastic articles suitable for the home. She gave a talk and had on display many of them. At the close of the evening cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

The ladies society of the Gushchu church, will hold an annual bazaar and tea Saturday afternoon, Nov. 3, at the church near Rivers End auto court. The ladies will have on sale an assortment of fancy work. Everyone is invited.

Among the new arrivals in this area are a 9 lb. 2 oz son, born Oct. 18 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen, named Michael David; and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reidell are parents of an 8-lb son, born Oct. 14, who has been named Stephen Michael.

Mrs. Eva Hill, pioneer of this valley, has been confined to her home the past week suffering from an attack of eysipelas on her face. She is slowly improving under medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rice of Albany, Ore., spent the week-end visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Favor, and father, O. M. Rice. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Westbrook are spending the week at San Francisco where they were called to the bedside of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Westbrook, who is seriously ill at the hospital. Mr. Westbrook has been with his wife for several weeks.

Eddie Krause will go to Gold Beach for a physical checkup at the hospital, Wednesday.
