

LOCAL NEWS

To observe National Educational Week, there will be an open house at the local school on Thursday, November 15, which all parents are urged to visit. The theme this year is "Unite For Freedom."

The rag drive, under sponsorship of the local P. T. A. is lagging somewhat, members report. Children may bring rags to the school, or anyone having rags to dispose of may leave them at any of these places: Hanscams, Dimmick's Brookings Market, Redfield's Market, Freeman's Chetco Store or at the V. F. W. hall. Only cotton and wool rags, free of buttons, snaps and zippers, are wanted.

W. W. Smith returned Friday from a trip to Salem with Sheriff Sabin, taking a couple of prisoners to the state penitentiary.

John Upmeyer and daughter, Joan, spent a week at Harrisburg having been called there by the illness of his mother, who is reported critical.

Mrs. Will Tolman is enjoying a couple of weeks visit at Calastoga, Calif., with her brother-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Bastian Beeger. Mr. Tolman went there the first of the week to visit for a short time before they returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Joy returned recently from a week's visit to Lyons, Ore., where they visited their youngest daughter, Mrs. John Prideaux, and her family. They report the weather was frosty while there.

People of this vicinity were interested in the "Ain't I Purty?" picture on page 35 of the Nov. 1, issue of Oregon Farmer, as it was a picture of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fanger of Gold Run Ranch, up the south bank of the Chetco. The Fangers bought the ranch from Mr. and Mrs. Clive Manley several months ago, and it is known to the older residents as the Plummer Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis and daughter returned to their home at Coos Bay after visiting for four days at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Jagers. Other recent visitors at the Jagers home were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Eimore, who are making their home at Ukiah where Harvey is working in the woods for a former local resident, Arley Beasley.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson left Monday on a trip to the southwest and particularly the Grand Canyon, which they did not have time to see in their former trip in that section of the country.

Due to Armistice day, Nov. 11, falling on Sunday this year, the holiday will be observed on Monday and there will be a holiday for government workers, including the local post offices which will be closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyer of Mesquite, Nev., were visiting old friends for a short time recently. Mrs. Boyer is the former Hazel Tolman, and they have been visiting her son, Marion Tolman, and his family at Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne left recently on a two-weeks trip to Eastern Oregon where they will visit their son, Kenneth, and family at Mt. Vernon, and Henry will try his best to bring home an elk.

Mrs. Emily Mauk returned to her home at Spokane recently after visiting for several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Knutsen. Mrs. Knutsen's sister, Mrs. Vingil Humphreys, was also a visitor here at the same time as her mother. She has returned to her home at Burnt Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Smith accompanied their daughter, Mrs.

Fred Witherell to Pendleton last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wetherell's father-in-law. Capt. Witherell, her husband, is with the army in Korea, and was unable to return for the funeral.

Miss Grace Levine returned last week to her home at Riverside, Calif., after vacationing here at the home of Miss Betti Bolin. Both young women are nurses.

Several local children attended the Crippled Children's clinic, at Gold Beach last Wednesday. Held in each county twice a year, these clinics bring specialists to examine children and prescribe proper treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beem and family and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson, went to Medford and Camp White Sunday. They spent some time at the home of friends and heard the local Barbershoppers sing at the camp.
