Barbershoppers Sang At Hospital

Twenty-one members of Brookings chapter chorus of SPEBSQSA went to Camp White domiciliary Sunday to entertain the veterans confined there. The local group was assisted by the "Last Minute Four from Klamath Falls, the Mellow-aires from Rogue Valley Chapter, Medford and Louis Stewart, past president of Klamath Falls chapter as master of ceremonies.

Over 430 men enjoyed the program through public address system, direct to their wards and several hundred in the auditorium. It was a worthwhile project and some time after the first of the year another show will be arranged with help of other chapters. After the program the Barbershoppers were guests of the VFW Auxiliary of Medford, which served cake and coffee. A lot of "woodshedding" was the climax to the afternoon.

F. O. E. Sponsors New Scout Troop

Jerry Burnett, regional Scout director, in town last week, has granted Aerie No. 3087 permission to sponsor another Boy Scout troop in this area, in hope that it will revive the old scouting interest for which this community was once noted.

Heading the Eagles scout committee are: Howard Ray, George Foster, Thomas Thompson, Bert Skuey and H. J. Weigel.

An appeal to boys 11 to 13, inclusive, is made for the new organization which will be given all support possible in its formation. Mr. Burnett will be here on Dec. 4, to give a scout program at the Rotary club.

Odd Fellows Were Honored at Party

The highlight of the Rebekah and Odd Fellows Hallowe'en party, Oct. 30, was the presentation of 25- and 30-year jewels to six members of the local Odd Fellows lodge. M. L. Morgan made a brief talk after which a 30-year jewel was presented to M. E. Dixon, and 25-year jewels to Milton Foster, LeRoy Marquis, Frank Pallady, Charles Crosby and to Charles Stanhurst. Tom Wann and Sylvester Clark were not present to receive their jewels.

Mr. Dixon transferred to Chetco lodge, but the remainder of the group were among the first members of the lodge which was organized in 1923, and have been loyal members since.

X-Ray Units Due In Curry, Nov. 26

Two chest X-ray units will be in Curry county, Nov. 26, through December 1, it was announced in town this week by Bertha Whirry, local chairman of the County Health Association.

"To make a survey a success depends upon the interest of all citizens. A community meeting is being held at the high school, Thursday at 8 p. m. at which time plans for the program in this area will be decided. There will be movies and informal discussion. People are urged to remember tomorrow evening at 8, at the high school," Mrs. Whirry told the Pilot.

A message from Cecil Young who went to Los Angeles for medical treatment, says he is much encouraged.
