

LANGLOIS NEWS

By Marion Brooks
(Too late for last week)

Floras-Willow Club

Time for the annual cooked food sale and bazaar has rolled around again. It will be held in the old Langlois restaurant building. Coffee and pie will be served during the day. Many articles, suitable for Christmas gifts, will be on sale. Some may wonder what the club does with the money it earns and how its existence is justified. Here are some of the accomplishments of the past year—money donations: $200 to Langlois community church building fund; $10 to repair church roof; $20 4-H summer school scholarship; $10 to Port Orford chamber of commerce; $5 for Easter seals; $25 for the Carpenterville girl who was severely burned; $100 for school band instruments; $10 to Gold Beach hospital; $15 for Christmas candy for schools; and many other items such as flowers and cards to the sick, etc.

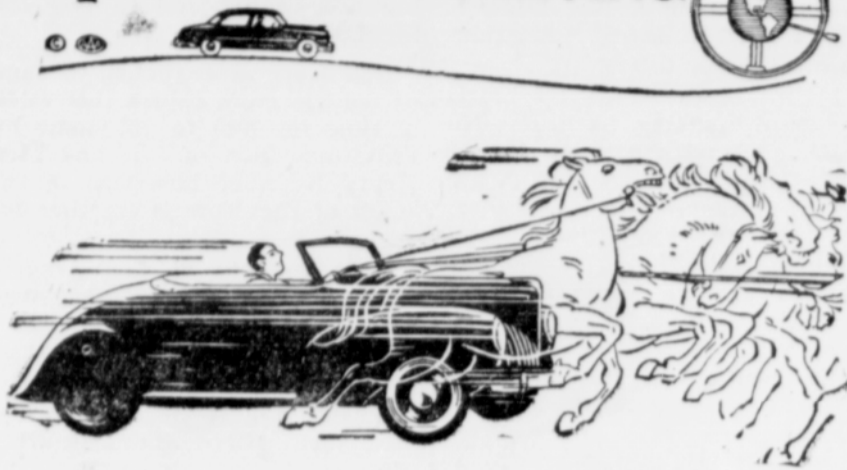

Mrs. June Sabin and children and Mrs. Delores Brooks and Sandy left for Selma, Ore., Nov. 6, where they met their husbands who were returning from an elk hunt in eastern Oregon. They visited Mrs. Brooks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buckles for a few days before returning home.

Bill Brannan was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Port Orford, Tuesday. Wednesday evening he attended a birthday and anniversary dinner honoring Mrs. Charles Saxton and Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, at Port Orford.

Mrs. Laura French of Landor, Wyo., has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Collins of Denmark since mid-summer. She expects to return to her home after Thanksgiving.

Sportsmanlike DRIVING

KEEP CONTROL OF YOUR CAR

Power! Everybody likes it. In your car, you have plenty of it. Don't let it run away with you!

Your car is like a large, more powerful YOU. It obeys YOUR will, not one of its own. It starts, stops, turns, speeds up, slows down exactly as you wish.

A car is a lifeless lump of stuff — altogether harmless. Then YOU get behind the wheel! For whatever it does after that, YOU are responsible, says the AAA driver training book, "Sportsmanlike Driving."

Power! Of course cars give you a thrill. They puff up your self-expression. They magnify your ego. Whether or not you deserve it depends on one important question: Can you control that power?

Power out of control makes you ridiculous — or criminal! You deserve power only if you keep it in control.

Thrill to the power of your car. But never unleash that power to maim or kill.

Never let your powerful car get away from its safety leash.

of Langlois and Mrs. Richard Danielson of Coquille made weekend trip to Kelso to visit a cousin of theirs, who has been ill.

Charles Brooks accidentally stepped through the cattle guard on Ray Zumwalt place, injuring his leg painfully. He still is under the doctor's care.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brooks, Sixes, gave them a house warming Saturday. The Brooks were presented a set of dishes.

Mrs. Roy Stein remained in Portland to recuperate from a recent operation, keeping her small son with her. Mr. Stein and older children returned to Langlois this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoop and daughter have gone to Salem where Mr. Shoop, Mary, Marilyn and Madelyn will appear on the Liberty network, Sunday afternoon, singing old songs.

Wayland Livermore is home on leave. He expects to be sent to Korea as soon as he returns to camp.

Frank Morris of Sixes has been released from the service and is visiting friends and relatives in Texas on his way home. He expects to be here early in December.

The home extension groups of Port Orford, Sixes and Langlois will meet at Sixes Grange Dec. 4, for study of holiday decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adolphsen are on an extended trip through the southwest. They will return through Idaho, and Montana, if weather permits. Cards to friends tell of a wonderful trip.

A group of Port Orford women honored Mrs. Ella Knapp of Langlois on her 84th birthday, Nov. 8. Mary Woodworth, Annie Hughes, Ona Wagner, Fay Price and Dacia Sweet brought a pot luck dinner at noon and in the afternoon Ethel Montgomery, Hattie Hampton, Amanda Smith, Clara Matheny, Ann Tichner, Mildred Malloy, Margaret Corbin, Estella Hansen and Hazel Cran arrived for a pleasant afternoon.

Ruth and David Engelbart of Beaverton are spending the weekend at the John Donaldson home.

Mrs. Martha Dennis of Sixes has gone to Los Angeles for a checkup with a family doctor.

Sixes Grange inducted four candidates into the order Saturday. Officers elected for the coming year are: Master—Dean Collins; overseer—John Bruchler; Lecturer—Elsie Quinn; steward—Gerald Quinn; assistant steward—Bob Zimmerman; lady assistant steward—Lorane Zimmerman; secretary—Frank Pook; treasurer—Gus Odstrom; chaplain—Marion Brooks; gate keeper—Bill Brannan; Ceres—Eulla Mastropolitto; Pomona—Mary Jean Livermore; Flora—Mabel Edstrom; executive committee—Clarence Brooks, Henry Adolphsen and Walt Slocum. Juvenile Matron is Pee-Wee Collins and musician, Fay Price.

Floras Willow club will meet Nov. 29, in the old Langlois restaurant building to prepare for the cooked food sale on Dec. 1. Their regular meeting is on Thanksgiving, but has been postponed a week.

Rev. McNeil, director of Village Missions, an interdenominational group, will be in Langlois Sunday, Dec. 2, and will speak at the Community church. He will be here the week beginning Nov. 26 to work in the community.

Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Hutton took Elaine Lang to a doctor at Coos Bay and had a tumor removed from her ear.

Putnams Entertain Employees at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Putnam entertained employees and friends at the Rod and Gun Club hall, Nov. 10. Turkey dinner was served by the Altar Society. Afterwards the group danced to Mrs. Putnam's music on the electric organ. Attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hellrig, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Putnam and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Matson and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fritz and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Art Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hellrig, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horst, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boardman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chapman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Val Mendelhall Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Darger, Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mrs. Sadie Merritt, Elmer Gardner and George aGtes, and Mrs. Dick Dunkleberger of Gold Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Luick of Smith River, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hardin of Crescent City.

Bazaar A Success

The bazaar, opened to the public Saturday at the V. F. W. hall by the Altar Society of Star of the Sea Catholic church, added a tidy amount to the funds for the new church. Many booths of handiwork, food, and games kept everyone busy and entertained.

Mr. Lounsbury won the mix-master as a door prize, with other prizes going to Gary Bolin, a piece of Revere-ware donated by Hanscans, and a fishing pole donated by J. G. Gallagher was won by Mrs. Edith Berger.
