

SMITH RIVER

A joint meeting of Del Norte Pomona Grange and the three subordinate Granges of the county was held at Crescent Redwood hall, Friday evening when State Deputy C. M. Ormsby performed the honor of installing the officers of the Granges at an impressive ceremony. A large crowd was present to witness the rites. After the opening ceremony, and salute to the flag, District Deputy Charles Glover called the meeting to order and introduced Deputy Ormsby. Assisting in the installation were Mary Glover, the masha; Gegalia Bearer, Emma Cooper; Emblem bearer, Isabel Buckner; Installing Chaplain, Glenn; pianist, Millie Barker. Following installation service, Deputy Ormsby spoke on many phases of Grange activities, and State H. E. chairman, Mabel Mabel Glenn addressed the group on home economics work of the Grange. A pot luck supper was served in the banquet room, following the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Marland Rice and three sons of Albany, Ore., are spending Thanksgiving vacation visiting the parents of Mrs. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison and other relatives. Rev. and Mrs. Porter Knudson motored to Mt. Shasta where they spent Thanksgiving with their son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Newell Knudson and son. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Westbrook are spending the week at San Diego where the Westbrooks will attend a state fair convention and then return to Palo Alto to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Leon Twigg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Landerholm visited their 6-year-old son, Russell, who is convalescing satisfactorily from polio, but must remain in the hospital for some time for treatment. It is hoped he may return home by Christmas day.

Couple United Here Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisk, recently married at Baptist Community Church, are now living at Portland. Mr. Sisk is son of Mrs. Jessie Sisk and the late Clifford Sisk, and Mrs. Sisk is daughter of Mr. and Harvey Foster, all of Brookings.

Officers Honored

A turkey dinner, honoring the officers of the Satellite chapter, No. 165, O. E. S., was given at the Chetco Inn last Thursday.

Mrs. Alice Rausch, worthy patron, and Roy Hendry, worthy patron, were especially honored. The dinner ended with Baked Alaska, an especially delicious and tricky desert. Games were enjoyed to close the evening.

Couple Married

Miss Mona Mae Fackwell became the bride of Richard Thomas at the Rowley residence, Friday evening, Nov. 16, with Rev. E. C. Hicks officiating.
