

No. 2253

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Curry.

CURTIS N. CHAPMAN, JR.,
plaintiff,

vs.

BARBARA JEAN CHAPMAN, Defendant.

TO: Barbara Jean Chapman,
the above named Defendant.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause, on or before the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: You must so appear and answer on or before the 6th day of December, 1951. If you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, the Plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint; that is, for the decree of said Court forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant and granting a decree of absolute divorce in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published by Order of the Honorable Guy H. Forsyth, County Judge of Curry County, Oregon, under the authority of Section 1-606 Oregon Compiled Laws Annotated, as amended by Chapter 63 Oregon Laws 1947, which order was made and entered on the 5th day of November, 1951, directing publication of this summons once each week for four successive weeks in the Brookings-Harbor Pilot, a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Brookings, Curry County, Oregon.

Date of first publication, November 8, 1951.

Date of last publication, November 29, 1951.

SAMUEL A. HALL, Attorney for Plaintiff, P. O. Box 432, Brookings, Oregon.

Sportsmanlike DRIVING*OBSERVE TRAFFIC LAWS

You don't "put one over" on police when you violate a traffic regulation. You simply fool yourself. You throw away your own protection.

Traffic regulations are made only when experience proves the need. They are designed for your protection. Almost every accident involves a violation of a traffic rule, says the AAA driver training book, "Sportsmanlike Driving."

Don't boast that you "get away" with a violation now and then. You're just heading for a fall. Take the case of Smart-

Alec Joe. He laughed off traffic violations, saying, "it's all right if you don't get caught." But of course his "luck" ran out. Finally he caused a bad crash, injured several persons, put himself in the hospital, got a stiff fine, and paid mighty heavy damages.

Police aren't out to punish drivers after accidents. They're out to keep accidents from happening. Try to help them.

Don't wait for fines, damages, broken bones, or tragedy.
Prevent accidents by observing traffic laws.

SMITH RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hight announce the marriage of their daughter, Phyllis Wheatley of Smith River, to Harry Jepsen of Fort Dick, on Dec. 9, at 2 p. m. at the Smith River Methodist church. Rev. C. P. Knutson will officiate. A reception will be held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nils Jepsen at Fort Dick following the ceremony. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the wedding and reception.

Mrs. Eva Hill received word from her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen of Denmark, Ore., that their two children, Judy and Wilburg, received the honors of being selected as two 4-H club musical talent members and along with other delegates from Oregon are now attending the national 4-H club convention at Chicago. Mr. Jensen is accompanist on the piano for his children, one playing the clarinet and the other the trumpet. This is the first time that two have been selected from the same family. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen also have the honor of being chaperones for the Oregon group. The group left Portland, Nov. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reichlin and two sons returned home Sunday from Tillamook where they spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reichlin.

Among the students who have returned to college after spending Thanksgiving with parents, were Henry Westbrook of Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westbrook; Billie and Barbara Hall, of Humboldt State College and Lester Crook of San Jose State College.

Word has been received from Rev. E. C. Hicks that he arrived at El Reno, Oklahoma where he is visiting his brother, Henry—whom he has not seen for more than 60 years. Mr. Hicks went by Greyhound.

Guests at the O. M. Rice home over Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniel and four girls of Tacoma who were guests of Mrs. Daniel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Favor. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. John Barnum and three daughters. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Marland Rice and three sons of Albany, Ore., called at the Rice home. Mr. Rice had the pleasure of seeing 10 of his great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Randall, former residents of the Fort Dick area, but now at Harbor, will celebrate their golden wedding on Dec. 9, with a pot luck dinner and reception for all their friends at the Lake Earl Grange hall, at 1:00. All friends are invited to attend this occasion.

Rev. and Mrs. P. C. Knudson returned home Monday from Mt. Shasta where they spent Thanksgiving and the week-end with their son and family, Rev. and Mrs. Newell Knudson and son. Sunday Rev. Knudson had the honor of christening his three-months old grandson, David.

Conservation Gains In Popularity Here

The round sticker, bearing the picture of wildlife, water, forests and hills, appearing on many of the cars in this area, shows a definite trend toward consciousness for conservation.

Just as "Keep Oregon Green" has done much in preventing the disastrous forest fires, so has the wildlife group done much in protecting the forests, streams and wildlife from abuses of the wanton hunter and camper.

First V. F. W. Party Due This Saturday

First in a series of bingo parties, sponsored by the VFW will be given Saturday night at the hall. There will be a country store, groceries, etc., and refreshments sold during the evening.

Money derived from this project will go to the veterans at Camp White for pocket change for a package of gum or a cup of coffee and at this Christmas season the local VFW unit will endeavor to supply the veterans with a little personal pocket money.

Next gathering, on Dec. 15, will be for Scout funds and will be in charge of that organization. On Dec. 29, another bingo party will help buy books for the library and care for its expenses.
