

LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

News of the Jensens

Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry called the Jensen family in Chicago one night this week and report that all of the family are having a wonderful time. They are now spending hours in rehearsal and will take part in the movie being made of the "Share the Fun Breakfast Club." Friday they are to see the stage show "South Pacific." They are staying at the Stephens Hotel, largest in the world. Thursday they saw Wayne King, "The Waltz King" rehearse for his television show. The Jensens leave Chicago Saturday for home, coming by way of San Francisco, and expect to be at Portland, Wednesday.
