

Local News

Mrs. Pete Hansen of Taft, Ore., and Mrs. E. B. Moos of Calgary, Alberta, Can., left Saturday after visiting their nephews, Lloyd and Fred Fox and families. They had been on a trip which had taken them to Key West, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McClain and son, Tommy, of Eureka, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jochens. Mrs. McClain is evening chief operator at the telephone office. She and Mrs. Jochens worked together before Mrs. Jochens' retirement.

Mrs. Karl Ostenberg went to San Francisco Sunday on business and will also visit her ailing father at Petaluma.

Mrs. Edith Warnock flew to San Francisco last week to visit her sister-in-law, Sophia Warnock, but weather prevented her from returning by plane.

C. F. Yahr is in San Francisco for ten days, attending a fertilizer school, and attending to other business matters for Brookings Feed & Seed.

Floyd Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Simmons, was discharged from the army, Nov. 29. With his family he will live in one of the dwellings on the Simmons ranch, on Cape Ferrello road.

Emil Moore left for the east last Sunday where he will meet Mrs. Moore and their daughter, Eugenia Banton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr returned from Fort Lewis, Wash., Sunday. They had gone there last week to meet their son, Bob, just back from Korea. They brought a buddy of Bob's as far as Grants Pass on his way to Medford to see his wife and baby. The two have been in the service together from the stand and hope to finish their last year in the same camp, in the states.

Residents on Cape Ferrello road are suing Coos-Curry Electric Cooperative for its failure to provide that area with electric power, according to word from a number of the residents, who say they cleared a right-of-way as asked, but nothing has been done to put the line into the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biddle and son returned recently from Eugene where they spent Thanksgiving with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wach. They also spent some time at Portland, shopping.

G. P. Christensen is on a combined business and pleasure trip to Chicago and other midwestern points. Mr. and Mrs. Christensen and children recently moved from the Potts Ranch on the Winchuck river to the home they have built on the property purchased from Olaf Pearson. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wallin have moved to the Potts ranch to make their home. They have lived back of the Grange hall since they came here several years ago from Chicago.

Mrs. Milton DeMartin and Mrs. Donald Crockett entertained a group at a canasta party at the DeMartin home last Thursday evening. Those enjoying the evening of games and refreshments were the hostesses and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harmer and niece Sonja Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garvin and sons, Bob Johnson of Smith River, and a friend of his in the navy, Gary Cory.

Three local young men, all in the navy, spent Thanksgiving together in Japan. LaVerne Mendenhall, Don Merritt and Raymond Reekman were lucky to be at the same port for several days that week. Don expects to return to this country this month, perhaps in time to spend Christmas at home, but the other two have several more months duty in that section before returning.

A drivers license examiner is scheduled to be in this area on Thursday, Dec. 13, but will not be at the Grange hall as he has been for the past several years. The hours are from 1 to 5 and the examiner plans to be in Brookings, at the recorder's office, in the rear of Pete Lesmeister's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skopec made a trip to Eugene to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter, Miss Mary Montgomery, who is a nurse at the Sacred Heart hospital. When they arrived there, they found that Mary had to enter the hospital as a patient immediately, to be built up so that she could have a goiter operation. While Mr. Skopec returned home his wife remained there, and then brought Mary here for a week to complete rest. They will have to return to Eugene the first of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson left last week for Parker, Ariz.,

to spend the winter months near where Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bush live on the Colorado river. Mr. Thompson's brother, Kirk, came from Southern California to drive their car for them. A. C. is feeling a great deal better but still must be careful to not overdo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Payne are new residents in the area. Mr. Payne is shop foreman for Davis Truck & Tractor. He has been shop foreman for the Eugene International dealer for the last five years.
