

LANGLOIS

By Marian Brooks

Mrs. Alden Boice was taken to Portland Wednesday morning for medical check-up. While away, Mrs. Carrie Boice is caring for the baby.

Ray Deets returned from Portland Friday. He had been attending barber school for the past ten days, and took his final examinations, passing with high average.

Mrs. Carrie Boice spent a few days in Langlois last week, returning to her home at Gold Beach, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jensen, Wilbur and Judy returned home from Chicago by way of Portland Thursday evening. Mrs. Jensen's mother, Mrs. Virginia Wilson, accompanied them and will remain for several weeks.

A reception was held at the Roy Kamp home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kamp last Saturday night. A large crowd of neighbors and friends came.

This is a believe it or not: It is reported that Newt Haga hooked an eight-pound silverside on the county road with his bare hands during the recent high water when Willow Creek overflowed.

Kenneth Thompson was at Gold Beach Wednesday on county fair business.

Dave and Myrtle McKenzie of Eureka visited friends and relatives along Elk river, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sypher returned this week from a ten-day visit at Sacramento where they visited friends and relatives.

F. E. Bray went to Glendale, Ore., Saturday for equipment for the mill.

Mrs. Jessie Spring and son of Schenactady, N. Y., spent the greater part of last week at the O. K. Wilcox home. They are cousins of the Wilcox family.

Mrs. William Gadsby of Nacotta, Wash., niece of Mrs. Lex Cope, is spending a few days visiting at the Cope home. She has been on a trip to California and is on her way home.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Easterling and baby arrived in Langlois on Thursday to take up the work of pastor in the Langlois Community Church. As soon as he is settled he will begin visiting the people of the community in an effort to build up interest in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Worth Shoop and children spent the past week-end at Salem where they visited Mrs. Shoop's sister, who has been in Japan for the past three years.

Sunday, Dec. 9, members of Sixes Grange and Masons held a barn-raising party for Mr. Dennis of Sixes. Nine men were present and at noon the women came with a pot luck lunch. Everyone had a fine time and good progress was made on the barn. They plan to go back another day and get the heavy work done so Mr. Dennis can continue alone.

The John Donaldsons made a number of trips to Coos Bay last week to visit Mary Jo Jensen who is confined to the hospital. Charlie Jensen was able to bring Mary Jo home Saturday where she is improving.

Joe Edwards of Weott, Calif., called on the Charles Clark's one day last week.

Langlois P. T. A. will meet Dec. 18 at the grade school gym. Youth dance at Sixes Grange is set for Dec. 21. It is a pot luck affair with all invited.

At the next regular meeting of Sixes Grange the Juvenile Grangers will hold their annual graduation exercises. Several of the juveniles will graduate into the sub-ordinate Grange. There will also be a gift exchange with gifts limited to 50c and treats and tree for the youngsters.

The annual church board meeting of Langlois the Community church was held Thursday evening. Two board members were elected: C. H. Brooks, re-elected for five years and Roy Stein for a term of three years. A building committee was appointed: Vincent Smith, Albert Britton and Worth Shoop, to get the building program going. Sunday school rooms are badly needed and it is hoped progress can be made soon. A finance committee consisting of Dick Barklow, Mrs. Albert Britton and Jean Strain, has the job of soliciting the community for building funds.

Stork Shower
Mrs. Jean Strain and Lucille Barklow honored Mrs. Evelyn Loice with a stork shower Saturday afternoon at the grade school gym. The table was decorated in keeping with the season with a centerpiece made up of a pop corn Christmas tree, decorated with many colored lifesavers. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. A guessing game was played, with prizes of pottery figurines going to Ada Campbell, Alma Deets, and Mimi Aldropp. Among those present were Mesdames Ollie Britton, Guerin, Campbell, Ho-f-sess, Strain, Capps, Deets, Aldropp, Donaldson, Thorhaver, Everest, Pearce and Brooks. All unable to attend, sent gifts.

Holiday Greetings!

Mrs. Edna Weigel

WE WISH TO THANK the community for its good wishes and the lovely flowers on the opening of our new TOT AND TEEN SHOP!
