

Church Scene Of Wedding, Sunday

SMITH RIVER — The Smith River Methodist church was the scene of the wedding, Sunday, December 9, when Phyllis Louise Wheatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hight of Smith River, and Harry Tedsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nis Jepson, of Fort Dick, exchanged marriage vows at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. P. C. Knutson, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony in presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives.

The young couple stood under an arch of ferns and yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums, with a candle in tall silver holder at each side. The railing was decorated with huckleberry greenery, a lovely white and yellow chrysanthemum arrangement centered the piano. The decorations were arranged by Betty Tyler. Preceding the ceremony the Jepson sisters, Gertrude, Gretchen and Christina, sang, "No Other Love," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Sue LaFiles.

The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Jepson. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore an aqua taffeta afternoon frock, and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Maxine Rhodus, wearing a gold and black striped spun rayon frock with a corsage of gold colored rosebuds.

The groom was attended by his brother, Paul Tedsen. Ushers were Hollis Rhodus and Jack Tedsen. Following the ceremony the reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nis Jepson at Fort Dick where friends gathered to extend congratulations to the couple.

The white linen covered table centered with the three-tier bride's cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the newlyweds. Cake and punch were served to the guests.

The newweds left on a wedding trip south, and on their return will reside at the dairy where Jepson is associated in farming with his parents.

Sportsmanlike DRIVING

GIVE YOUR CAR A SQUARE DEAL

Does your car enjoy good car health?

Too many cars go to garages for the same reason that too many human bodies go to hospitals—they never got a square deal, says the AAA driver training book, "Sportsmanlike Driving." As far as garages and hospitals are concerned, there's a good little slogan—Upkeep Keeps You Out.

Caring for your car is a good example of where "the stitch in time saves nine." Little troubles develop into big breakdowns. For both safety and economy, keep every part of your car in tip-top shape.

Follow seven easy rules for simple car care:

1. Keep your car well lubricated.
2. Warm the engine before driving.
3. Drive smoothly, at reasonable speeds.
4. Keep tires properly inflated.
5. Check your brakes, lights, and horn.
6. Treat your battery right.
7. Have your car garage-inspected regularly.

Point with pride to a car in good health. If you want a square deal from your car, give your car a square deal!

A donation of $5 was voted to purchase T. B. seals. Program pertaining to Christmas, under direction of Mrs. Lucille Lawn, followed: A duet "Frosty the Snowman and Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer.

Reading, "The Small One," by Charles Tazewell, was presented by Ayradeen Case.

The choral group of ladies of Brookings Adventist church, sang "Christmas Bells," with Mrs. La Merne Christensen as leader, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fern Graton.

The mantle of the clubroom carried out the Christmas theme, with sprays of pine, centered with a madonna, with hurricane lamps at each end. The white linen-covered table was centered with a spray of Pittosporum, with Madonna and child in the center. The young mothers club was in charge of decorations and refreshments.

Former Resident Passes

Final rites were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Evelyn Scott, 71, who passed away Dec. 8, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allen Lehman, Crescent City, after several months illness.

Mrs. Scott, widow of the late supervisor, Ira Scott, of this city, made her home here many years. The home is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spooner, and was famous for its beautiful big shrubs and flowers, the hobby of the Scotts.

She was a member of the Womens Club where she was active in the flower section. She was a native of Ferndale in Humboldt county, born June 5, 1880. She lived in Del Norte County for 35 years.

Following services at Federated church, Crescent City, interment was at Smith River under direction of Wier Funeral Home.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Pauline Lehman of Crescent City, Mrs. Maxine Togni of Fort Bragg; five grandchildren, three sisters in Fortuna.

Other Smith River Notes

Posters will soon be out announcing the annual New Years ball to be held at the Community hall, Dec. 31. This dance has always been a big affair, attended by people from Curry and Del Norte counties, who gather to usher the New Year in. Proceeds from this dance go toward improvement on the hall.

Donald Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, of Smith River, and freshman at Del Norte High, is confined to Seaside hospital with broken wrists received while lifting barbells. She weight of the bells caused the bones to break in each wrist.

Something special in way of a Christmas party is being planned by Brookings Rotary Club for Saturday evening, Dec. 29, when as part of the entertainment the Ukrainian couple now attending Lewis & Clark College, will be principal speakers.

To be a ladies night affair, the plans while not complete, call for an exchange of gifts, and a few musical numbers.

Prompted by a recent Oregonian article which featured this displaced couple, Warren Smith met the couple at Portland, had them to lunch and learned a lot of their background. He told the club that it was in for a real treat. Each speak a number of
