

Grangers Plan A Christmas Party

The regular meeting of Chetco Grange was held Friday evening with many out. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fichoff and Mrs. LaRue Ziegler were voted into membership on demits, and signed the member register of the local Grange.

The request of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sandbo for demits was granted and Mr. Sandbo's resignation as treasurer-elect for '52, was accepted. Ellen Jagers was elected to fill the vacancy.

Plans for the Christmas party, which is to be held next meeting, were discussed. There will be a pot luck dinner at 6:30 with a short meeting at 8 o'clock. There will be a Christmas tree and a gift exchange, with everyone attending bringing an inexpensive gift.

It was decided to hold the usual New Year's Eve party in the hall for Grangers and guests. Andrew Hoffeldt was appointed general chairman for the affair.

Following the meeting, dancing was enjoyed. Refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hoffeldt and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Crockett.

Legion Dance, Sat.

Spike Morgan and his Sierra Mountaineers will furnish the music for the Legion dance, set for Saturday, Dec. 15 at the Chetco Grange hall.

The Legion will use funds derived from this dance to be used for disable veterans in the hospitals and their families. At this particular time of the year, an effort is made to give Christmas cheer and encouragement.

With this in view, the Legion is hopeful that a big attendance will be present Saturday.
