Mrs. Victor Reynolds has another sea lion story to tell these days. It seems that some people from Lakeview camped on the Chetco below Brad Page's house, were awakened one night recently by a commotion on the river. By turning on the headlights of their car they were able to see a huge sea lion going through all sorts of gymnastics out in the water. They aver that the animal would throw a fish up in the air and catch it and go through some of the most fantastic gyrations possible. Fishermen report that the fishing in tide-water has been poor, and the sea lion may be the reason.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Edwardson arrived home Sunday from Roseburg where Mrs. Edwardson has been visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edwardson for the past month. Mr. Edwardson made the trip north Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe returned the first of the week from Portland where they had gone on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Pfc Tony Felipe arrived home Sunday from Fort Bliss, Texas, where he is with the 181st Operations Detachment. He has a 20-day furlough so that he will be able to be home for the holidays.

Mrs. Bill Skopec left for Eugene Sunday where she will be with her daughter, Mary Montgomery when she undergoes a goitre operation this week. Mr. Skopec will join them for Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Springer are expected back this week from Port Townsend, Wash. where they had gone to visit an aunt.

Mrs. Anna Waldien left last week for Portland where she will visit her son, Charles, and his family over Christmas. She then plans to go by train to Southern California, where she will visit relatives for some time.

Joe Rose left last week for North Dighton, Mass., to join his wife and spend the holidays there with relatives. Mrs. Rose has been there since the middle of November. They plan to return soon after the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Oliver left on Saturday for Portland where they will spend the holidays with their two daughters.

Bob Bowlin arrived from San Luis Obispo last week where is a student at Cal Polytechnic, and will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bowlin on the Winchuck.
